HINT OF SOVIET MOVE TO PROTECT RAIL INTERESTS

WHILE LEAGUE AWAITS WORD FROM TOKIO, FIGHT ENVELOPS RAIL LINE

Geneva, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Notes from the Washington and Nanking governments regarding the Sino-Japanese conflict in Manchuria were received today by the League of Nations secretariat.

The Chinese agreed to refrain from aggravation and expressed willingness to withdraw and participate in a settlement.

China thanked the league council for transmitting to the United States all available information.

Kenkrichi Yoshiwaza, head of the Japanese delegation and probably the world's smallest diplomat, maintained his original position that he must await further instructions from Tokio when the league council convened to resume consideration of the Manchurian conflict.

The work of pacifying China and Japan fell chiefly on Viscount Cecil of England, veteran apostle of world peace and a capable statesman but more interested in disarmament than in far eastern conflict. Sharing the burden were Alejandro Lerroux, Spain's new foreign minister and president of the council, and Rene Massigli of France, shrewd diplomat but distinguished chiefly as a disarmament expert.

Mukden, Manchuria, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Japanese control of Chinese rail heads in Manchuria and occupation of the South Manchurian railroad zone today brought the possibility of Soviet action to protect Russia's railroad interests.

Capture of Tenhua by Japanese without serious resistance completed control of Chinese rail heads. Japan and Russia were believed being drawn together, before the Japanese occupation of Manchuria, by the growing threat of all-Chinese railways.

Three Russo-Japanese railway conferences were scheduled this fall at which it was hoped to settle rate disputes and liquidate the struggle to divert shipments from the Japanese port of Dairen to the Soviet port of Vladivostock. Two of the conferences will involve the Chinese Eastern railway, theoretically controlled jointly by the Soviets and China but actually dominated by Russia since the little war of 1929.

An agreement also is sought for a common reduction of freight rates on grain from north Manchuria. Russian and Japanese lines were expected to slash rates to meet Chinese competition. They were so hard hit by loss of freight to the Chinese that they cut staffs and reduced salaries.

To Arraign Moriarity on Gambling Charge Today

Anoka, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Dan Moriarity, roadhouse proprietor, will be arraigned late today in district court on charges of operating a gambling device, the county attorney's office announced.

Moriarity was arrested recently when alleged gambling equipment was discovered in his roadhouse during a raid.

Breckenridge, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Pike, bass, redhorse and other fish were killed in the recent heat wave in the Otter Tail river near here.

The water, which is low, became so warm that the fish died in great numbers. A wall-eyed pike well over two feet long was found here on the river bank.

C. B. Wilkins Contributes 30 Bushels Tomatoes to Brainerd Poor; Starts Move for County-Wide Appeal

Farmers of Crow Wing county may contribute this fall of surplus crops and produce to the care of Brainerd poor.

Such a move is considered favorably by the Brainerd Health Service and was suggested by C. B. Wilkins, Maple Grove farmer, when he brought 30 bushels of tomatoes to the city and contributed them to the poor for distribution through the Health Service. Fifteen bushels of the tomatoes have already been canned by women of the service, and the remaining tomatoes are being divided among needy families.

Wilkins stated that a number of other farmers in his community would support the idea of assisting the poor rather than storing the surplus of garden crops. He was of the opinion that farmers throughout the county would be pleased to fall in line with the idea.

PROVIDE JOBS FOR WILLING WORKERS, WICKERSHAM SAYS

CONDEMNS INDISCRIMINATE BONUSES OR PENSION AND GENERAL ALMS GIVING

Denver, Colo., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Provision of jobs for willing workers, and not indiscriminate largesse of bonuses or pensions, nor general alms giving, is the way to prosperity in the opinion of George W. Wickersham, chairman of the national commission which bears his name.

Wickersham expressed his beliefs in an address before the 50th triennial Episcopal convention here.

"On every hand we see industry prostrated, values of securities falling and an increasing number of men and women out of employment," Wickersham said. "Distress and suffering menaces thousands of our countrymen.

"A part of our trouble seems to result from the perfection of our machinery of production which has far outrun the capacity of our own people to consume, while foreign markets on which we must depend for disposition of our surpluses are no longer able or willing to buy.

"It has been said the world owes every man a living. A truer statement is that it owes every man an opportunity to make a living. The problem that confronts us is to provide every able and willing worker with a job.

"We cannot lift ourselves out of our depression by squandering millions of dollars on engines of warfare, nor yet in the indiscriminate largesse of bonuses and pensions. Nor does the way to prosperity lie through general alms giving.

"It is a time to beware of the ready nostrums of demagogues which, in order to secure political favor, would pauperize the nation.

"If every man quits thinking primarily of his own troubles and tries first to help his neighbor we shall soon pass from this state of uncertainty and go forward with renewed hope and confidence."

Dallas Man Named Ass't U. S. Attorney at St. Paul

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—J. L. Krusemark, department of justice investigator from Dallas, Texas, has been appointed an assistant United States attorney at St. Paul, it was announced today.

Ex-Convict Hijacker Wounded by Officers

Niles, Ill., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Fred H. Williams, West Allis, Wis., and Floyd Hetrick, Milwaukee, were waylaid by higwaymen four miles north of here today as they were driving to Minneapolis with a seven and one-half ton truck loaded with cigars and cigarettes.

While one of the bandits taped their hands with adhesive tape and ordered them into an automobile, another drove off with the truck. For several hours, they were driven around the vicinity and then released.

Two Forest Glen policemen noticed the machine and stopped it. The driver attempted to flee but was wounded when the officers fired on him. He gave his name as Morris Weiner, 38, and said he recently had been released from prison where he had served 10 years of a 10-year to life sentence. He refused to name his accomplices.

Cunningham to Remain Prohibition Administrator

Washington, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Federal Prohibition Director Amos W. W. Woodcock said today that J. Frank Cunningham would continue as deputy prohibition administrator at Milwaukee, Wis.

"I have never received a single complaint against Cunningham," Woodcock said. "There have been rumors of political complaints but no direct complaints have reached me even from that source."

He said Cunningham's record at Milwaukee showed steady improvement and good administration.

21 OF 41 INDICTED BY GRAND JURY TO BE ARRAIGNED TODAY

INCLUDED ARE SEVERAL OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES OF ST. LOUIS COUNTY

Virginia, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Twenty-one persons named in indictments by a St. Louis county grand jury will be arraigned in Virginia late today, Frank Rosemeir, assistant county attorney announced.

The majority of those indicted are from the range and will be brought to Virginia this afternoon, Rosemeir said. Included in the list will be several officials and employes of St. Louis county and Eveleth, it was believed.

The grand jury returned a total of 47 true bills with a 25 page voluminous report in which Mason Forbes, former St. Louis county attorney, was criticized for raising amounts of postage stamps expenses.

The report also criticized county business methods and the affairs of district commissioners.

Names of 41 of those indicted will not be revealed until their arraignment, Rosemeir said as 41 of the cases will be prosecuted on secret indictments.

'PIRATE' MURDER VICTIM'S WIFE TO VIEW SUSPECTS

HOLD TWO, ONE A YOUTH OF 18, FITTING DESCRIPTIONS SHE GAVE OF "PIRATES"

Mineola, L. I., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Lillian Collings, widow of the slain yachtsman, failed today to identify two men suspected of being the "pirates" she says killed her husband and kidnaped her two weeks ago in Long Island Sound.

Her failure to identify the men brought the authorities to the end of what appeared to be another blind alley in their inquiry into the strange death of Benjamin P. Collings, the murdered man.

Mineola, L. I., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The attractive red-haired widow of Long Island Sound's "pirate" murder victim today was to view two men believed to fit descriptions she gave of the "pirates" who killed her husband, attacked her, and abandoned her baby on the yacht Penguin.

The two men are in Mineola police station, not under arrest but resting in cells "voluntarily of their own accord" until Mrs. Lillian Collings, the widow, attempts to identify them. Just outside the door of their cell a jailer rested during the morning hours.

One of the men is Timothy Quinn. Quinn appears to be 45 years old. He is about 5 feet 9 inches tall. His hair is close cropped. His eyes fit the description of the "madman" Mrs. Collings said attacked her in a canoe. He is powerfully built, a seaman, fisherman, an expert boatman and capable of tying expertly the knots used in bundling up Collings' body before it was thrown into the Sound.

His companion is a youth of about 18, also fitting the description of the younger "pirate" on that fateful night two weeks ago.

Quinn is a former patient in insane asylums, according to police, and three times, they said, he had been questioned in connection with other murders.

Quinn first was arrested at the home of his brother, a physician, by Detectives James Smith and Thomas Devery.

Legion Queen

Ida Lessin, comely Michigan miss, who was elevated as queen of the American Legion convention, which opened in Detroit Sept. 21, is shown as she ruled over the veterans of the World War. When you think that Miss Lessin's court is composed of legionnaires from every State, what girl wouldn't be envious of her job?

WADENA FARMERS PLAN TO EMIGRATE TO RUSSIA SOON

COMMUNIST MEETINGS IN WHICH BENEFITS OF SOVIET SYSTEM WERE EXTOLLED PROMPT MOVE

Fergus Falls, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—After a series of Communist meetings in the Finnish settlements at New York Mills and Wadena, this summer, a group of farmers and their families prepared today to emigrate to Russia.

Farms and household goods will be sold immediately to allow the Communist candidates to sail on Oct. 3 on the steamer Drottingholm. Nearly all the emigrees are Finnish immigrants to this country.

Speakers have extolled the benefits of the Soviet system at numerous meetings. Six farmers and their families from Wadena county and about as many from Otter Tail county have already made their arrangements for the trip. Similar gorups from Becker county and the region about Grand Rapids, Minn., are expected to join.

ARREST LEADER OF REVOLT AGAINST CATTLE TESTING

J. W. LENKER PLACED UNDER MILITARY GUARD WHILE TESTERS VISIT HIS FARM

Tipton, Iowa, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—State soldiers and veterinarians left an improvised national guard camp in trucks today as they went into action in Iowa's first real cattle testing "war."

The veterinarians, 75 in number, assembled with their kits or tools and working clothes, while final touches were added to the hastily arranged army camp where 1,500 young soldiers of the national guard were massed to enforce testing of cattle in Cedar county.

The guardsmen, most of them as new to the business of cattle testing as they were to the business of war, cheered as they shouldered their rifles, strapped on their side arms, and went to the farms from which had come protests and violent revolt against the state compulsory tuberculosis testing law.

J. W. Lenker, one of the leaders of the revolt against the testing law, was arrested and placed under military guard at the fair grounds camp near Tipton. He was arrested because he sold his cattle. Lenker's farm, located almost on the county line, was the first objective of the guardsmen and veterinarians today.

Lions Dizzy From Astronomy Lowdown Turn Thoughts to Selection of Bowling Captain

Under the guidance of Rev. August Samuelson, the Lions of Brainerd were taken heavenward last evening—literally speaking.

The local pastor did not converse on the betterment of the soul but by the use of figures, stupendous ones that sent the minds of the members reeling, he explained in detail the solar system to which Earth belongs.

Rev. Samuelson, the astronomer, told what he had learned by years of study about the composition of the sun and the relative distances of the various planets, an explanation of light and the speed with which it travels. He unfolded his knowledge of eclipses and gave a history of theories relative to the positions of the earth.

And from astronomy the Lions went to bowling. They decided to sponsor again a ten pin team in the city league. Dr. W. A. Erickson was named captain.

RESOLUTION CALLS CONGRESS FOR REFERENDUM ON EITHER REPEAL OR MODIFICATION

HYDE TO MAKE BEER SURVEY IN REGARD TO FARM ASPECTS

INQUIRY WOULD DETERMINE NUMBER THUS EMPLOYED IF PROHIBITION IS MODIFIED

Washington, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde, it was learned from him today, soon will undertake an investigation of the economic aspects with regard to agriculture of proposals to permit manufacture of beer.

Hyde said he had received numerous inquiries concerning the possible effect on farmers of resumption of pre-prohibition production of hops and barley. He said his inquiry would be directed toward determining how many farmers would be thus employed if the prohibition act should be modified.

"I am undertaking it purely as a personal matter," he said.

The information was obtained from Hyde after he had called at the White House upon another matter. Apparently mindful of the speculation caused when a White House secretary recently asked the census bureau for information concerning brewery workers, Hyde emphasized that the investigation was not being conducted at the instance of the White House.

"I have been considering it for a long time," he said. "But I have just now gotten around to it."

A questioner informed Hyde he recently had been listed in some newspapers as a member of an unofficial cabinet bloc of seven "on the right side of this question."

"Which is the right side?" Hyde returned.

"Well, the newspapers said it was the liberal side," he was informed.

"What—and me a Methodist," Hyde exclaimed.

Woodcock reiterated that agitation for legalization of beer tends to handicap enforcement of the liquor laws.

"Our activity here is against the commercial violator," he said.

JOHN L. SMITH FUNERAL TO BE SATURDAY HERE

SERVICES TO BE CONDUCTED AT MASONIC HALL 2:30 P. M.; MRS. SMITH IMPROVING

Improvement was reported today in the condition of Mrs. Laura G. Smith by physicians attending her in a Minneapolis hospital while arrangements were being made for the burial of her husband, John L. Smith, in Brainerd Saturday.

Mrs. Smith was still unconscious from the effects of gas poisoning suffered when she left a gas jet open in her home at Minneapolis. Her husband died from the effects of the gas Wednesday.

Funeral rites will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Saturday at the Masonic hall in Brainerd under the auspices of the Aurora lodge of Brainerd. The services are open to the public. Interment will be at Evergreen cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were associated with the early life of Brainerd and Crow Wing county.

Gangsters' Plans Go Awry as Victim Breaks Away

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.) — A gang "ride" went awry in a shower of bullets today when the intended victim broke from two captors and fled in the pre-dawn dusk.

The proverbial black sedan of gangdom's death rides was parked at the curb at 18th and South Wabasha, in the heart of the Capone district and only a few blocks from the hotel where "Scarface Al" spends much of his time.

Loiterers saw three men emerge from an apartment building. They were abreast, the middle one struggling in the grasp of the other two.

Investigating Board Hears of Murders

New York, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Two men were murdered in a lower East Side Tammany club and their murders recorded as having occurred on the street outside, the city-wide investigating commitee was told today.

Fergus Falls, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The annual corn show will be celebrated jointly with the celebration of the completion of the paving between here and Breckenridge, October 8, it was announced today.

Detroit, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The following is the resolution passed by the American Legion today:

"Whereas, the 18th amendment to the constitution of the United States has created a condition endangering respect for law and the security of American institutions, now, therefore: Be it resolved, the American Legion, in its 13th annual convention assembled, favors the submission by congress of the repeal or modification of the present prohibition laws, to the several states, with a request that each state submit this question to the voters thereof."

FARM BUREAU TO DEMAND AMENDING OF MARKETING ACT

PRESENT ACT FAILS TO PROVIDE SATISFACTORILY FOR DISPOSAL OF SURPLUS CROPS

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Directors of the national Farm Bureau Federation planned today to meet criticism of the federal marketing act with demands that congress amend the law to include the "equalization fee principle."

The demand was included in a resolution adopted at the close of a two-day session. The farm leaders reiterated their unamimous support of the marketing act, but pointed out that in accepting it they had reserved the right to insist upon amendments that were thought necessary. Their resolution said the present marketing act failed to provide satisfactorily for disposal of surplus crops.

The law has been subject to increasing criticism, according to Edward A. O'Neal, Farm Bureau president, from individuals and corporations who contend it has placed the government in business.

Under the equalization fee plan, O'Neal pointed out, the cost of disposing of surplus would be assessed against the crops instead of being taken from the national treasury by the farm board as at present. This is the first official step taken by the Farm Bureau for a change in the marketing law.

BANDITS SLUG VICTIMS AND THEN SET FIRE TO HOME

STATEWIDE SEARCH ON FOR YOUTHS WHO CAUSED DEATHS OF ARIZONA COUPLE

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Two youthful bandits who slugged their victims into unconsciousness and then set fire to the house to hide their crime, were sought throughout the state today after the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wright.

Wright, who was 66, gasped out the story of the brutal slaying before he died in St. Joseph's hospital. His wife was cremated in the kitchen of their home.

Two young men forced their way into his home last night, Wright told Sheriff R. L. McFadden, and demanded money. Mrs. Wright interceded, and was struck over the head with a gun.

"My God, how I fought for her," Wright gasped, "but they beat me over the head and I fell unconscious.

The next I knew, I was being dragged from the blazing house by Paul C. Peterson, my neighbor. My wife was still inside, but it was too late to save her."

Peace officers were handicapped in their search for the men by lack of an adequate description.

Predict Showers to Break Cold Wave

Showers were expected to break the cold wave that has brought frost to Minnesota and the northwest for two night saccording to the United States weatehr bureau.

The showers will contniue Friday afternoon, the forecast said. The mercury dropped to 42 degrees during the night but freezing temperatures were reported in several low lying places.

1008 TO 394 IS MARGIN; BONUS DEMAND DROPPED

WILD DEMONSTRATION FOLLOWS POLL INSURING "WET" ELEMENT VICTORY

Washington, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—President Hoover was informed of the Legion beer vote. His spokesman at the White House said Mr. Hoover did not desire to comment.

Detroit, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Henry L. Stevens, Warsaw, N. C., was today elected national commander of the American Legion by acclamation after the first ballot.

Detroit, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The American Legion convention today went on record on two momentous national issues, voting for a nation-wide referendum on prohibition and killing a move for cash bonus payments to world war veterans. On the bonus question they heeded Prseident Hoover's stern warning against piling up new governmental costs.

By the margin of 1008 to 394 the American Legion called on congress for a referendum on either repeal or modification of the 18th amendment.

Wild scenes of disorder, shouts and cheers, throwing of hats and applause broke out when the "wet" element gained the number of votes that would insure victory for the resolution urging the referendum.

As the resolution was declared adopted, the convention went wild anew. During the roll call there had been shouts of victory as the count increased for the measure. But when Commander O'Neil announced the official count the cheering became deafening.

The vote of northwest states was as follows:

Minnesota—Yes, 35; No, 9.
North Dakota—Yes, 13; No, 3.
South Dakota—Yes, 12; No, 6.
Wisconsin—Yes, 38; No 0.
Montana—Yes, 12; No, 0.

The "dry" votes were greeted with boos and catcalls from the packed galleries, while every vote against prohibition received a cheer. A Texas delegate, who arose and demanded a poll of his delegation after the state was voted unanimously against the measure, received a big hand.

In a lull after the voting L. K. Robb arose and invited the Legion to Australia for "a good wet time." That was a signal for more cheering and applause.

The official vote was 902 to 507 against the payment of a cash bonus.

The vote by northwest states was as follows:

Minnesota—Yes, 8; No, 27.
Montana—Yes, 12; No, 0.
North Dakota—Yes, 10; No, 6.
South Dakota—Yes, 0; No, 18.
Wisconsin—Yes, 3; No, 35.

The non-controversial portions of the legislative committee's report were adopted without discussion.

Mrs. Louise W. Williams of Tauckahoe, N. Y., newly elected president of the Women's Auxiliary, was presented to the convention. The Legionaires greeted her by singing the "Sidewalks of New York."

A lower interest rate on adjusted compensation was asked in one resolution passed. The majority report on the bonus, opposing cash payment, was read.

Capone Sends Wage Cut Order to Headquarters

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Al Capone has cut salaries, too.

Reports from his headquarters in the Lexington Hotel in the notorious 22nd street district, indicate that Al has sent down a wage cut order, similar to those announced by industrial firms all over the country.

Other reports indicated the reason. Saloons are moving only about one-third the amount of beer and hard liquor that went over the bar in the days of prosperity. Likewise gambling houses were said to be turning in considerably less.

Meanwhile the "big bullett' is facing a costly trial in federal court next month and needs the money.

U. S. Marshals to Take "Torture" Bootlegger

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Isadore Powell, one of three "torture" bootleggers, was arrested by United States marshals today. Powell is under conviction with Robert H. Berman and Phillip "Flippy" Share for transporting liquor. Share and Powell will begin four and a half year sentences in Leavenworth federal penitentiary Saturday.

'PIRATE' MURDER VICTIM'S WIFE TO VIEW SUSPECTS

HOLD TWO, ONE A YOUTH OF 18, FITTING DESCRIPTIONS SHE GAVE OF "PIRATES"

Mineola, L. I., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Lillian Collings, widow of the slain yachtsman, failed today to identify two men suspected of being the "pirates" she says killed her husband and kidnaped her two weeks ago in Long Island Sound.

Her failure to identify the men brought the authorities to the end of what appeared to be another blind alley in their inquiry into the strange death of Benjamin P. Collings, the murdered man.

Mineola, L. I., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The attractive red-haired widow of Long Island Sound's "pirate" murder victim today was to view two men believed to fit descriptions she gave of the "pirates" who killed her husband, attacked her, and abandoned her baby on the yacht Penguin.

The two men are in Mineola police station, not under arrest but resting in cells "voluntarily of their own accord" until Mrs. Lillian Collings, the widow, attempts to identify them. Just outside the door of their cell a jailer rested during the morning hours.

One of the men is Timothy Quinn. Quinn appears to be 45 years old. He is about 5 feet 9 inches tall. His hair is close cropped. His eyes fit the description of the "madman" Mrs. Collings said attacked her in a canoe. He is powerfully built, a seaman, fisherman, an expert boatman and capable of tying expertly the knots used in bundling up Collings' body before it was thrown into the Sound.

His companion is a youth of about 18, also fitting the description of the younger "pirate" on that fateful night two weeks ago.

Quinn is a former patient in insane asylums, according to police, and three times, they said, he had been questioned in connection with other murders.

Quinn first was arrested at the home of his brother, a physician, by Detectives James Smith and Thomas Devery.

Lions Dizzy From Astronomy Lowdown Turn Thoughts to Selection of Bowling Captain

Under the guidance of Rev. August Samuelson, the Lions of Brainerd were taken heavenward last evening—literally speaking.

The local pastor did not converse on the betterment of the soul but by the use of figures, stupendous ones that sent the minds of the members reeling, he explained in detail the solar system to which Earth belongs.

Rev. Samuelson, the astronomer, told what he had learned by years of study about the composition of the sun and the relative distances of the various planets, an explanation of light and the speed with which it travels. He unfolded his knowledge of eclipses and gave a history of theories relative to the positions of the earth.

And from astronomy the Lions went to bowling. They decided to sponsor again a ten pin team in the city league. Dr. W. A. Erickson was named captain.

Legion Queen

Ida Lessin, comely Michigan miss, who was elevated as queen of the American Legion convention, which opened in Detroit Sept. 21, is shown as she ruled over the veterans of the World War. When you think that Miss Lessin's court is composed of legionnaires from every State, what girl wouldn't be envious of her job?

WADENA FARMERS PLAN TO EMIGRATE TO RUSSIA SOON

COMMUNIST MEETINGS IN WHICH BENEFITS OF SOVIET SYSTEM WERE EXTOLLED PROMPT MOVE

Fergus Falls, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—After a series of Communist meetings in the Finnish settlements at New York Mills and Wadena, this summer, a group of farmers and their families prepared today to emigrate to Russia.

Farms and household goods will be sold immediately to allow the Communist candidates to sail on Oct. 3 on the steamer Drottingholm. Nearly all the emigrees are Finnish immigrants to this country.

Speakers have extolled the benefits of the Soviet system at numerous meetings. Six farmers and their families from Wadena county and about as many from Otter Tail county have already made their arrangements for the trip. Similar gorups from Becker county and the region about Grand Rapids, Minn., are expected to join.

ARREST LEADER OF REVOLT AGAINST CATTLE TESTING

J. W. LENKER PLACED UNDER MILITARY GUARD WHILE TESTERS VISIT HIS FARM

Tipton, Iowa, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—State soldiers and veterinarians left an improvised national guard camp in trucks today as they went into action in Iowa's first real cattle testing "war."

The veterinarians, 75 in number, assembled with their kits or tools and working clothes, while final touches were added to the hastily arranged army camp where 1,500 young soldiers of the national guard were massed to enforce testing of cattle in Cedar county.

The guardsmen, most of them as new to the business of cattle testing as they were to the business of war, cheered as they shouldered their rifles, strapped on their side arms, and went to the farms from which had come protests and violent revolt against the state compulsory tuberculosis testing law.

J. W. Lenker, one of the leaders of the revolt against the testing law, was arrested and placed under military guard at the fair grounds camp near Tipton. He was arrested because he sold his cattle. Lenker's farm, located almost on the county line, was the first objective of the guardsmen and veterinarians today.

RESOLUTION CALLS CONGRESS FOR REFERENDUM ON EITHER REPEAL OR MODIFICATION

HYDE TO MAKE BEER SURVEY IN REGARD TO FARM ASPECTS

INQUIRY WOULD DETERMINE NUMBER THUS EMPLOYED IF PROHIBITION IS MODIFIED

Washington, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde, it was learned from him today, soon will undertake an investigation of the economic aspects with regard to agriculture of proposals to permit manufacture of beer.

Hyde said he had received numerous inquiries concerning the possible effect on farmers of resumption of pre-prohibition production of hops and barley. He said his inquiry would be directed toward determining how many farmers would be thus employed if the prohibition act should be modified.

"I am undertaking it purely as a personal matter," he said.

The information was obtained from Hyde after he had called at the White House upon another matter. Apparently mindful of the speculation caused when a White House secretary recently asked the census bureau for information concerning brewery workers, Hyde emphasized that the investigation was not being conducted at the instance of the White House.

"I have been considering it for a long time," he said. "But I have just now gotten around to it."

A questioner informed Hyde he recently had been listed in some newspapers as a member of an unofficial cabinet bloc of seven "on the right side of this question."

"Which is the right side?" Hyde returned.

"Well, the newspapers said it was the liberal side," he was informed.

"What—and me a Methodist," Hyde exclaimed.

Woodcock reiterated that agitation for legalization of beer tends to handicap enforcement of the liquor laws.

"Our activity here is against the commercial violator," he said.

JOHN L. SMITH FUNERAL TO BE SATURDAY HERE

SERVICES TO BE CONDUCTED AT MASONIC HALL 2:30 P. M.; MRS. SMITH IMPROVING

Improvement was reported today in the condition of Mrs. Laura G. Smith by physicians attending her in a Minneapolis hospital while arrangements were being made for the burial of her husband, John L. Smith, in Brainerd Saturday.

Mrs. Smith was still unconscious from the effects of gas poisoning suffered when she left a gas jet open in her home at Minneapolis. Her husband died from the effects of the gas Wednesday.

Funeral rites will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Saturday at the Masonic hall in Brainerd under the auspices of the Aurora lodge of Brainerd. The services are open to the public. Interment will be at Evergreen cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were associated with the early life of Brainerd and Crow Wing county.

Gangsters' Plans Go Awry as Victim Breaks Away

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.) — A gang "ride" went awry in a shower of bullets today when the intended victim broke from two captors and fled in the pre-dawn dusk.

The proverbial black sedan of gangdom's death rides was parked at the curb at 18th and South Wabasha, in the heart of the Capone district and only a few blocks from the hotel where "Scarface Al" spends much of his time.

Loiterers saw three men emerge from an apartment building. They were abreast, the middle one struggling in the grasp of the other two.

Investigating Board Hears of Murders

New York, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Two men were murdered in a lower East Side Tammany club and their murders recorded as having occurred on the street outside, the city-wide investigating commitee was told today.

Fergus Falls, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The annual corn show will be celebrated jointly with the celebration of the completion of the paving between here and Breckenridge, October 8, it was announced today.

Detroit, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The following is the resolution passed by the American Legion today:

"Whereas, the 18th amendment to the constitution of the United States has created a condition endangering respect for law and the security of American institutions, now, therefore: Be it resolved, the American Legion, in its 13th annual convention assembled, favors the submission by congress of the repeal or modification of the present prohibition laws, to the several states, with a request that each state submit this question to the voters thereof."

FARM BUREAU TO DEMAND AMENDING OF MARKETING ACT

PRESENT ACT FAILS TO PROVIDE SATISFACTORILY FOR DISPOSAL OF SURPLUS CROPS

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Directors of the national Farm Bureau Federation planned today to meet criticism of the federal marketing act with demands that congress amend the law to include the "equalization fee principle."

The demand was included in a resolution adopted at the close of a two-day session. The farm leaders reiterated their unanimous support of the marketing act, but pointed out that in accepting it they had reserved the right to insist upon amendments that were thought necessary. Their resolution said the present marketing act failed to provide satisfactorily for disposal of surplus crops.

The law has been subject to increasing criticism, according to Edward A. O'Neal, Farm Bureau president, from individuals and corporations who contend it has placed the government in business.

Under the equalization fee plan, O'Neal pointed out, the cost of disposing of surplus would be assessed against the crops instead of being taken from the national treasury by the farm board as at present. This is the first official step taken by the Farm Bureau for a change in the marketing law.

BANDITS SLUG VICTIMS AND THEN SET FIRE TO HOME

STATEWIDE SEARCH ON FOR YOUTHS WHO CAUSED DEATHS OF ARIZONA COUPLE

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Two youthful bandits who slugged their victims into unconsciousness and then set fire to the house to hide their crime, were sought throughout the state today after the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wright.

Wright, who was 66, gasped out the story of the brutal slaying before he died in St. Joseph's hospital. His wife was cremated in the kitchen of their home.

Two young men forced their way into his home last night, Wright told Sheriff R. L. McFadden, and demanded money. Mrs. Wright interceded, and was struck over the head with a gun.

"My God, how I fought for her," Wright gasped, "but they beat me over the head and I fell unconscious.

The next I knew, I was being dragged from the blazing house by Paul C. Peterson, my neighbor. My wife was still inside, but it was too late to save her."

Peace officers were handicapped in their search for the men by lack of an adequate description.

Predict Showers to Break Cold Wave

Showers were expected to break the cold wave that has brought frost to Minnesota and the northwest for two night saccording to the United States weatehr bureau.

The showers will contniue Friday afternoon, the forecast said. The mercury dropped to 42 degrees during the night but freezing temperatures were reported in several low lying places.

1008 TO 394 IS MARGIN; BONUS DEMAND DROPPED

WILD DEMONSTRATION FOLLOWS POLL INSURING "WET" ELEMENT VICTORY

Washington, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—President Hoover was informed of the Legion beer vote. His spokesman at the White House said Mr. Hoover did not desire to comment.

Detroit, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Henry L. Stevens, Warsaw, N. C., was today elected national commander of the American Legion by acclamation after the first ballot.

Detroit, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The American Legion convention today went on record on two momentous national issues, voting for a nation-wide referendum on prohibition and killing a move for cash bonus payments to world war veterans. On the bonus question they heeded Prseident Hoover's stern warning against piling up new governmental costs.

By the margin of 1008 to 394 the American Legion called on congress for a referendum on either repeal or modification of the 18th amendment.

Wild scenes of disorder, shouts and cheers, throwing of hats and applause broke out when the "wet" element gained the number of votes that would insure victory for the resolution urging the referendum.

As the resolution was declared adopted, the convention went wild anew. During the roll call there had been shouts of victory as the count increased for the measure. But when Commander O'Neil announced the official count the cheering became deafening.

The vote of northwest states was as follows:

Minnesota—Yes, 35; No, 9.
North Dakota—Yes, 13; No, 3.
South Dakota—Yes, 12; No, 6.
Wisconsin—Yes, 38; No 0.
Montana—Yes, 12; No, 0.

The "dry" votes were greeted with boos and catcalls from the packed galleries, while every vote against prohibition received a cheer. A Texas delegate, who arose and demanded a poll of his delegation after the state was voted unanimously against the measure, received a big hand.

In a lull after the voting L. K. Robb arose and invited the Legion to Australia for "a good wet time." That was a signal for more cheering and applause.

The official vote was 902 to 507 against the payment of a cash bonus.

The vote by northwest states was as follows:

Minnesota—Yes, 8; No, 27.
Montana—Yes, 12; No, 0.
North Dakota—Yes, 10; No, 6.
South Dakota—Yes, 0; No, 18.
Wisconsin—Yes, 3; No, 35.

The non-controversial portions of the legislative committee's report were adopted without discussion.

Mrs. Louise W. Williams of Tauckahoe, N. Y., newly elected president of the Women's Auxiliary, was presented to the convention. The Legionaires greeted her by singing the "Sidewalks of New York."

A lower interest rate on adjusted compensation was asked in one resolution passed. The majority report on the bonus, opposing cash payment, was read.

Capone Sends Wage Cut Order to Headquarters

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Al Capone has cut salaries, too.

Reports from his headquarters in the Lexington Hotel in the notorious 22nd street district, indicate that Al has sent down a wage cut order, similar to those announced by industrial firms all over the country.

Other reports indicated the reason. Saloons are moving only about one-third the amount of beer and hard liquor that went over the bar in the days of prosperity. Likewise gambling houses were said to be turning in considerably less.

Meanwhile the "big bullett' is facing a costly trial in federal court next month and needs the money.

U. S. Marshals to Take "Torture" Bootlegger

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Isadore Powell, one of three "torture" bootleggers, was arrested by United States marshals today. Powell is under conviction with Robert H. Berman and Phillip "Flippy" Share for transporting liquor. Share and Powell will begin four and a half year sentences in Leavenworth federal penitentiary Saturday.

Pequot Farmer Keeps Busy With Chickens

Claude Gardner, a farmer and stockman of Pequot, is making a regular business out of a side-line which he started a few months ago. His business has been poultry raising, and he has built up a fine flock of White Leghorns. About four months ago he decided to start a trucking business to recover from reverses in the poultry market.

During the last four months he has covered over 13,000 miles trucking live stock from his community to the South St. Paul market. He makes from 8 to 10 trips a month to the market and ninety per cent of his consignments are sold through the Central Co-Operative Association, a farmer-owned and farmer-controlled selling agency. During the past week he has been on the market every day. He gets to South St. Paul early in the morning, and immediately returns to prepare for the following day's shipment.

"This is one way to weather the depression," asid Gardner. "It takes a lot of work and loss of sleep, but we have to sacrifice something now and then to make a 'go' of things."

Pequot Farmer Keeps Busy With Chickens

Claude Gardner, a farmer and stockman of Pequot, is making a regular business out of a side-line which he started a few months ago. His business has been poultry raising, and he has built up a fine flock of White Leghorns. About four months ago he decided to start a trucking business to recover from reverses in the poultry market.

During the last four months he has covered over 13,000 miles trucking live stock from his community to the South St. Paul market. He makes from 8 to 10 trips a month to the market and ninety per cent of his consignments are sold through the Central Co-Operative Association, a farmer-owned and farmer-controlled selling agency. During the past week he has been on the market every day. He gets to South St. Paul early in the morning, and immediately returns to prepare for the following day's shipment.

"This is one way to weather the depression," asid Gardner. "It takes a lot of work and loss of sleep, but we have to sacrifice something now and then to make a 'go' of things."

BUSH YIELDS 7 DAHLIAS

L. E. Cameron, 1101 Sixth ave. N. E., sanitary policeman, claims a phenomena in a dahlia bush in the garden of his home.

Seven dahlias have blossomed on the bush at various times throughout the summer.

The seventh bloom was plucked by Mr. Cameron and now is displayed in a vase on the desk of Mrs. E. T. Fleener, city clerk.

Germany to Return Saber

Paris, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—A Franco-Prussian saber, richly encrusted with ornaments, and taken from a French general in the Franco-Prussian war by a German lieutenant, is to be brought back to France as a gift from President von Hindenburg. The sword was presented to President von Hindenburg on his 83rd birthday, but he accepted it on condition that it would be restored to the heirs of its owner.

BRAINERD MUSICAL CLUB BOOKS COSSACK CHORUS FOR OPENER

ADVANCES PLAN FOR AUDITORIUM USE THIS SEASON

MORE EVENING PROGRAMS, MEMBERSHIP MAY BE OPENED TO MEN; CHORUS HERE OCT. 17

The Cossack Chorus will open the season of the Brainerd Musical club Saturday evening, Oct. 17. This chorus is superior to the Cossack aggregation of singers on the Chautauqua program a year ago. In fact, their work was so artistic that many declared this number alone was worth the price of the ticket to the entire course. The chorus is well known in Brainerd, having appeared here in a previous season.

The new numbers, this year, will consist of a vocal quartette—"The American Singers," a Belgian String Quartette, and a concert soloist, Rita Orville, soprano.

The return bookings will be climaxed by Harry Farbman, violinist, to whom Brainerd's musical lientel capitulated years ago. Since then, the club has heard many violinists who were said to be a 'second Farbman" but, like Paderewski, there is no second Farbman. So the board of the Musical club this year demanded a return of the one and only Farbman.

The club not only furnishes musical, but literary attractions of a high order. The president of Carlton college, Dr. Cowling, gave his much discussed lecture on Bolshevist Russia under the chairmanship of Mrs. L. F. Hawkinson last year. This year the chairman of the literary section, Mrs. F. E. Stout, expects to continue this valuabe civic service and perhaps add to it book reviews of some of the outstanding books of the year.

The courtesy committee, consisting of all resident past presidents, will continue to add a delightful social feature in the form of monthly luncheons, which will give an opportunity for out-of-town and new members of the club to meet the "seasoned" members. Short after-dinner speeches are given at these luncheons on topics of interest to all residents of Crow Wing county. These are spiced with witty introductions and music. A 1 o'clock luncheon hour gives plenty of time for sociability and shopping before the hour of the regular musical program.

This year, fewer programs will be held on Saturday afternoons. There will be two evening and two Sunday afternoon programs, which may make it feasible to open the membership to men, if a sufficient number are interested.

Negotiations are under way with the school board to secure the high school auditorium for all concerts and lectures by admitting high school pupils free of charge. Such an attractive audience hall would add much to the eclat of such occasions and, if the pupils appreciate their opportunity, capacity houses should greet every artist and lecturer.

The personnel of the Musical club board for the coming year is as follows:

Observe Kolacky Day in Montgomery Oct. 1

Montgomery, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The third annual celebration of Kolacky Day will be held here on October 1.

The kolacky is a bun used in Bohemia and by people of Bohemian extraction in this country, hundreds of whom live in and near Montgomery.

A delegation from that southern Minnesota community came to St. Paul last week to advertise the Kolacky Day celebration and to invite Gov. Floyd B. Olson, Mayor G. J. Bundlie and other state and city officials to attend.

Gov. Olson was compelled to decline the invitation, however, because of his recent illness, which has made it necessary for him to decline all invitations involving much travel and speechmaking.

Mayor Bundlie accepted the bid and said he would surely be on hand on Kolacky Day in Montgomery, especially since he had been unable to attend a year ago.

$10,000 TAX DUE CITY TIED UP BY ANOTHER LAXITY

GROSS EARNINGS DISTRIBUTION DELAYED PENDING FEDERAL DAM'S APPLICATION

Failure by Federal Dam, a village north of Remer, in making application for state gross earnings tax in the specified time, has forced a delay in the allotment of $10,000 now due the city of Brainerd, Mrs. E. T. Fleener, city clerk, reported today.

Less than a dozen towns and cities in the state are entitled to a slice in the gross earnings tax, the divisions being made at one time.

The gross earnings tax due Brainerd is in lieu of the regular tax paid by other industries and covers the city's portion of the N. P. gross earnings tax for 1930.

Better Illumination---

Brainerd can boast of one of the most beautiful white way systems of any city its size and even larger in the country. The concrete standards are imposing and the reflectors highly ornamental. In fact, the entire system lends an air of dignity that is typical of the city's general appearance; smart and progressive.

But, does the system generate sufficient illumination, particularly in the business district? This thought has occurred to a few after hearing several comments from visitors. They admired the design and layout but felt that the lights could be brighter in the more congested sectors of the city.

Bulbs of greater candlepower might improve the situation. And, the extra cost for current would be negligible and incomparable with the benefits of greater safety to be derived through better illumination.

Comments from readers in the form of letters to the editor are welcomed by The Daily Dispatch. It is asked that the comments be limited to state or local situations. In this way, The Daily Dispatch hopes to be of even greater service to the Brainerd community by giving the opinions of the people on matters concernng this section.

The letters should be brief and written on one side of the paper only. All communications must be signed as an evidence of good faith but The Daily Dispatch will withhold the names of the writers upon request.

The Time to Build---

The wise man who expects to build in the near future will seriously consider the question of beginning his work right now, rather than wait until next spring when it is expected that costs of all kinds will be higher than they are at the present time. Materials can be had for approximately 75 per cent of what they cost a few years ago, when building activities were at the peak, and labor is much more plentiful than was then the case. A dollar expended this fall should buy 25 to 35 per cent more in both labor and material than in years past, building sites are to be had in favorable locations at reasonable figures and more attention can be given to detail at this season than during a rush construction period.

Not only will the wise builder be obtaining better value for his money; he will also give work to the men who need it to help them through the months when outdoor employment is at the ebb. Make your dollars do almost double duty by attending not only to building new homes, barns, etc., but look over all your holdings carefully and repair them against the time when severe weather comes.

Placing Responsibility---

North Carolina has recently joined the ranks of states adopting the financial responsibility law for drivers who cause accidents. The law provides that a person failing to satisfy a judgment obtained against him shall have his license suspended until he gives proof of financial responsibility, either through an insurance policy or a personal corporate bond. The so-called financial responsibility does not penalize the careful driver; it puts the blame where it properly belongs and compels the driver of the car at fault to suffer the consequences of his negligence.

With the added congestion which paved highways bring with them comes the extra hazard of the inexperienced, careless or drunken driver. In the tourist season this hazard is greatly enhanced, of course, but in everyday driving the auto owner must watch carefully for the mistakes of others. At all times there is great strain; at all times there should be some measure of protection against those who are reckless in the use of their automobile.

Wages to be Cut---

It would seem that labor is to be cut after all, General Motors and Bethlehem Steel leading the way this week in reduction of salaries or wages. The cut runs from 10 to 20 per cent and may be only the beginning, strong as has been the effort to refrain from crippling the wage earner.

In defense of their action the companies cite the fact that a dollar buys much more than it formerly did.

The manufactured gas business has not decreased in the last score or more years; natural gas as exuded by the talker without terminal facilities is actually on the increase.

Power companies are on the alert to promote their business and all sorts of statements and literature bearing on the subject may be had for the asking—in fact much of it is sent without request. The burden of the whole cry is against municipally owned and operated plants for heat, light or power. Propaganda is constantly put before those whom it is sought to influence, the idea being, probably, that constant effort will wear away opposition. It is always well to look for motives in reading or listening to those who distribute so-called "facts" bearing on this or similar subjects.

James A. Reed, the fiery ex-senator from Missouri, has cased himself into the Democratic contest for president by announcing that he would "consider it a compliment" to have his home state instruct its delegation for him.

Many people honestly believe that government operation is superior to that of private direction, but there are few instances where such belief is susceptible of proof. Whenever an individual undertakes an investment in building he must carefully study costs, materials, labor and every item entering into construction. Under the government plan, or even in the construction of public buildings like schools, churches, etc., bids are asked primarily, but as a rule there are so many "extras" or additional items of expense that taxpayers usually pay much more than the individual. The first price on a public building is very seldom the last price and in nearly all instances bids are made with a very generous allowance for lost time and slow work. Quite often, too, contractors "get together" and divide up public work in a manner very satisfactory to themselves.

Dark Velvet and Ostrich Plume Factors in New Autumn Fashions

* * * * * * * * *

The Renascence of Real Millinery That Had Its Start Early This Year Will Be Continued This Fall with Velvet the Favorite Medium. Brims Will Outdo Berets and Turbans in Popularity.

The Autumn fashions for millinery and dresses constitute a great triumph for velvet. Not only in America is the popular material enjoying a vogue such as never before, but also in Paris is it extremely popular. The charming evening frock, above at left, is a Parisian model of dark transparent velvet. It is fashioned on graceful form-fitting lines, opening to a wide flair at the skirts. The coat dress at right is also a Paris creation, with dark velvet again the medium. This model has a detachable collar, the removal of which transforms the coat into a dress. Upper center is a typical example of the Autumn style in millinery. It is an American creation of black velvet, simply trimmed with a white feather in the new headline brim. The lower model is of felt, featuring the white ostrich spray. The addition of a necklace of black and white beads greatly enhances the charm of the hat.

Jap War Lord

General Honjo (above), Japanese garrison commander at Mukden, ancient capital city of Manchuria, is expected to be called upon to explain the sudden and unaccountable seizure by some of his forces at Mukden. Chinese leaders have expressed themselves as amazed at General Honjo's offensive against Chinese troops in the Mukden area. He is said to have acted on his own authority and embarrassed his Government.

MUSEUM ROOM OF COUNTY HISTORY REOPENS FRIDAY

SARAH E. HEALD TO ASSIST IN THE RECORDING OF OLD TIMERS OF COUNTY

The Historical Society's museum room in the old courthouse will be opened again this Friday, from 2:30 to 5 p. m. and on succeeding Fridays until further notice. The secretary, Mrs. Sarah E. Heald, will be in attendance, and will be happy to receive all visitors, especially students and teachers of history classes, and also to receive any contributions to the museum's collection.

Many such contributions have been received during the period while the museum has been closed, and these will be carefully labelled and placed on exhibition at once. President H. I. Cohen has received from F. L. Barber, of Chicago, a fine protograph of that gentleman's father, the late John C. Barber, former owner of the "Twin Oaks" stock farm and game preserve near Bay Lake. The photograph was accompanied by a copy of an obituary published by the Dispatch of December 29, 1919. That obituary states in part:

"John C. Barber joined the mechanical department of the N. P. shops at St. Paul in 1871. He returned to the Northern Pacific at Brainerd in 1883. While here he studied the truck situation, and brought out his lateral motion truck, with a large reduction of parts, as well as first cost of maintenance. The demand for these trucks decided him to resign from railway service in 1895; and since that time he had given his entire time to his various inventions of railway truck appliances, seventy four of which he had patented. The most important of the list has proved to be the all-steel truck for locomotive, passenger and freight equipment and street cars. In 1898 he organized the Standard Car Truck Company, and of this organization he was president.

Mr. Barber's interests were not confined entirely to the railway supply field. Like many other successful railway and supply men he had a fondness for farming, and he indulged it on an extensive stock farm, with fish and game preserves, at "Twin Oaks," ten miles east of Brainerd. He spent much time there in the summer and especially during the hunting season. He made of it a veritable show place, building a group of modern buildings. He indulged his taste for the best boloded stock, poultry, etc. and raised fine crops of grain, etc. He built miles of gravelled roads about the place. He employed the farmers in the vicinity in this work, and thus assisted materially in developing the whole country side."

The society welcomes the gift of such records and pictures for their collection, and urges the older settlers of the county to join in the effort to complete the collection. The secretary will be glad to asssit in the writing of the records of old timers if they will see her and furnish the data.

Pile Sufferers

You can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Nothing but an internal remedy can do this—that's why cutting and salves fail. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, is guaranteed to quickly and safely banish any form of Pile misery or money back. H. P. Dunn and Johnson's Pharmacy and druggists everywhere sell it with this guarantee.

BRAINERD 25 Years Ago

Sept. 24, 1906

Miss Sadie Conway of Minneapolis who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. J. Murphy, returned home today.

Mrs. Brown and daughter, of Toronto, who have been visiting at the W. H. Strachan home, left today for their home.

Justus Gray and John Wise had a narorw escape from death in the Number One block at the corner of Sixth and Laurel, which was destroyed by fire early this morning. Justus Gray, who was sleeping in the center building upstairs was badly singed in escaping. He awoke to find the upper part of the building afire and tried to come down the front stairs but was driven back by the flames. He managed to get to a window and escape onto the shed of the roof. His face, hair, and moustache were badly singed and his hands badly burned before he made his escape.

General Manager Gemmell will come up from the Cities tonight and he will take a trip to Big Falls with Supt. Strachan on business.

Mrs. Wyrzykowski, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bidwell, returned to her home in Minneapolis this morning.

J. R. Smith has returned from a hunting trip to Backus.

G. A. McKinley went to Aitkin on business Friday night.

MUSEUM ROOM OF COUNTY HISTORY REOPENS FRIDAY

SARAH E. HEALD TO ASSIST IN THE RECORDING OF OLD TIMERS OF COUNTY

The Historical Society's museum room in the old courthouse will be opened again this Friday, from 2:30 to 5 p. m. and on succeeding Fridays until further notice. The secretary, Mrs. Sarah E. Heald, will be in attendance, and will be happy to receive all visitors, especially students and teachers of history classes, and also to receive any contributions to the museum's collection.

Many such contributions have been received during the period while the museum has been closed, and these will be carefully labelled and placed on exhibition at once. President H. I. Cohen has received from F. L. Barber, of Chicago, a fine protograph of that gentleman's father, the late John C. Barber, former owner of the "Twin Oaks" stock farm and game preserve near Bay Lake. The photograph was accompanied by a copy of an obituary published by the Dispatch of December 29, 1919. That obituary states in part:

"John C. Barber joined the mechanical department of the N. P. shops at St. Paul in 1871. He returned to the Northern Pacific at Brainerd in 1883. While here he studied the truck situation, and brought out his lateral motion truck, with a large reduction of parts, as well as first cost of maintenance. The demand for these trucks decided him to resign from railway service in 1895; and since that time he had given his entire time to his various inventions of railway truck appliances, seventy four of which he had patented. The most important of the list has proved to be the all-steel truck for locomotive, passenger and freight equipment and street cars. In 1898 he organized the Standard Car Truck Company, and of this organization he was president.

Mr. Barber's interests were not confined entirely to the railway supply field. Like many other successful railway and supply men he had a fondness for farming, and he indulged it on an extensive stock farm, with fish and game preserves, at "Twin Oaks," ten miles east of Brainerd. He spent much time there in the summer and especially during the hunting season. He made of it a veritable show place, building a group of modern buildings. He indulged his taste for the best boloded stock, poultry, etc. and raised fine crops of grain, etc. He built miles of gravelled roads about the place. He employed the farmers in the vicinity in this work and thus assisted materially in developing the whole country side."

The society welcomes the gift of such records and pictures for their collection, and urges the older settlers of the county to join in the effort to complete the collection. The secretary will be glad to asssit in the writing of the records of old timers if they will see her and furnish the data.

COUNTY JAIL NOW HOUSES 30, FEDS TRANSFER 17 HERE

CAPACITY NEARLY REACHED; ONLY TEN ARE CROW WING COUNTY PRISONERS

The Crow Wing county jail is quite the popular place.

With 30 prisoners booked, Sheriff Frank E. Little reports he has only accomodations for four more prisoners.

Such a report should not be confused. Crow Wing county is not lawless. Of the 30 imprisoned, 17 are federal prisoners serving time on rum convictions, three are transfers from the Morrison county jail and ten are prisoners from this county.

The latest committment of federal prisoners, numbering eight, were "registered" last night. They were sentenced from the federal district court at Minneapolis. The Morrison county prisoners were transferred here since the adioining county's jail was condemned.

The county receives $1 a day from the U. S. government for each federal prisoner.

LET HIM WAIT

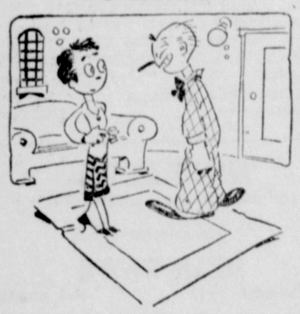

Bobby—Mr. Jones is waiting outside.
Big Sister—Well, tell him to keep waiting. He told me last night he would wait a lifetime for me.

WHAT MISSILE?

Mrs. Joax—Here's an account of a mysterious disappearance. A woman misses her husband.
Mr. Joax—What did she throw at him?

NO BRAINS

She—Dad said you had more money than brains.
He—Good joke. I'm broke, ha, ha.
She—Oh, yes, he added that, too.

CO-EDS BAN TAXIS

Austin, Tex., Sept. 24.—(UP)—Taxis are taboo for "dates" at Texas university—at least officially. Finding that the business depression had hit the bank accounts of the men students, the girls voted a "no rent car year" to help the boy friends out. And maybe make dates more certain.

Charge School Treasurer With $3,000 Shortage

St. Paul, Sept. 24.—(UP)—Charges of shortages amounting to nearly $3,000 in the accounts of Nick Walesch, treasurer in school district No. 49, Albertville, Wright county, were made today in a report of State Public Examiner A. R. Johnson.

Johnson's report covering an audit for six years ending July 31 said that Walesch admitted the shortages and said he would pay them back. Members of the school board also were criticized for alleged illegal payments to themselves and relatives for work done for the school district.

Cross Examine Star Witness in Foshay Trial

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 24.—(UP)—Through a maze of accounting technicalities, defense counsel today carried on a cross examination of C. M. Coble, accountant for the department of justice, who is the government's star witness in the trial of Wilbur B. Foshay and six associates on charges of using the mails to defraud.

Figures in red chalk written on a large blackboard in the courtroom and intended to show deficits in the defunct W. B. Foshay Co. were attacked by Josiah E. Drill of the defense until Coble admitted the headings atop the figures should be qualified.

Eau Claire Woman Slain by Husband's Cousin

Eau Claire, Wis., Sept. 24.—(UP)—Mrs. William Nicholas, 30, was killed today by her husbands' cousin, John Kreuger, 35, who then committed suicide.

Kreuger was employed on the Nichols farm near here. Relatives and neighbors said he had tried to force attentions on Mrs. Nichols.

BRAINERD GRIDDERS MEET WADENA ELEVEN HERE FRIDAY

OBSERVERS SEE WELL BALANCED LOCAL OUTFIT

MEMORY OF SCORELESS TIE INTENSIFIES RIVALRY BETWEEN SCHOOLS

A well balanced and well conditioned football team is what observers saw at the Brainerd high school athletic field last night as Coaches Bill Dammann and Ben Tayor sent their proteges through the last strenuous workout before the season's inaugural Friday with Wadena.

Wadena to Outweigh Locals

Rivalry, generated to a high pitch because of last year's scoreless tie, will break out into hostilities at 4 o'clock. And, according to a report from Wadena Coach Bill Schermak has moulded together another of his surprise machines. A week ago they trounced a husky Detroit Lakes eleven by a 12 to 0 score.

In the opinion of the few who saw Wadena, Brainerd's opposition when the lid is pried off the local grid kettle tomorrow, will outweigh the home boys ten pounds to the man. Draw your own conclusions from this fact but to a football man it offers a decided advantage.

The blonde-haired head mentor of Brainerd has not deviated from his policy of keeping "mum" on his starting lineup almost until the opening gun sounds. But, a possible machine has been moulded together through observation of the practice sessions and fans will find it not far wrong to expect a lineup something like this: Bob Wygle, le; Jackson, lt; Edstrom, lg; McPherson, Garvey or Walt, c; Anderson, rg; Junior Wygle, rt; Swanson, re; Gabiou, qb; Templeton, lh; Koeck, rh; Foster, fb.

Then there is White and Dahl who are both scrapping for backfield berths. They will undoubtedly see service as will Coffee, Rubins and McClearie, aspirants for tackle positions and Billy Koeck and Koering who have ambitions to become guards.

White and McClearie were on the injured list for the last few days but both reported to Coach Damman last night they were ready for action.

After several sessions of heavy scrimmage, Coach Damman will taper off practice tonight with a light signal drill. He will also probably school Gabiou in polishing off his passing and Foster in his kicking. Damman's right hand man, Taylor, will have his hands full with a review of general fundamentals.

Probable lineup for Wadena has not been announced.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 24.—Minnesota promises to have one of the best pass combinations in the Big Ten with My Ubl throwing to Brad Robinson. Ubl, a sophomore, is the best passer Minnesota has had in years. He threw several 50 yards yesterday.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Robert Wolf, promising guard, and Carl Sanger, halfback, have removed their ineligibility technicalities and are full-fledged candidates for places on the Wisconsin team. The Badgers showed improvement in blocking yesterday.

Ann Abor, Mich., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Michigan players nursed an epidemic of bruises and minor injuries today after the hard workouts early in the week. Coach Kipke is working overtime with his punters. Everhardus is the most consistent of the kickers.

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Red Owen, halfback and end last year, has been shifted to tackle by Coach Robert Zuppke in making several changes among the Illinois personnel. A new quarterback candidate has bobbed up in Foley.

Columbus, O., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Ohio State had a hard scrimmage scheduled today which was expected to give Coach Sam Willaman the first line on many of his younger players under fire. Cooler weather may cause Willaman to abandon his previous plan to practice under floodlights.

Not Like Sharkey to Sidestep Bout With Carnera, Scribe Says

By HENRY McLEMORE

New York, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—What with his genius for doing the right thing at the wrong time, Jack Sharkey never has been our favorite boxfighter. We'd be the last guy to run to Mister Sharkey's aid in a street fight. We've seen too much of his ill humor, know too well how he likes to browbeat the little fellows, to like the man socially, or care what happens to him.

But when the boys along the Rue de Cauliflower start insinuating that his demand for a cancellation of his bout with Primo Carnera was based on fear, we feel it our duty to say a few words in the man's behalf. Now, Sharkey is not a coward. Not out there in the ring, anyway. What he does when he hears strange noises at night up there in his Chestnut Hills mansion we wouldn't know. Maybe he gets under the bed. But once he climbs through the ropes and starts throwing punches, he isn't afraid of any man in the business.

He proved this several years ago when he took on George Godfrey and Harry Wills after all the other white heavyweights had taken to the bushes. What is more, he whipped them, despite the fact they outweighed him from here to Nantucket.

He didn't look like a coward out there with Dempsey, did he? He carried the fight all the way and was trading punches with the greatest slugger of them all when he caught one a good foot below the foul line.

Since that time he has taken on Stribling, Schmeling and half a dozen more of the game's best without giving the slightest indication of being yellow. And for a man who has stood toe to toe with Wills, Godfrey, Dempsey, Stribling, Schmeling and Walker, to fear a mix-up with the big cumbersome, slow-punching thing that is Carnera, just doesn't read right. We mean it doesn't make sense.

SHORTENED DUCK SEASON MAY PROMPT MUDHEN SHOOTING

IZAAK WALTON LEAGUE SAYS BIRD CAN MAKE GOOD DISH IF PROPERLY PREPARED

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The lowly mudhen, which in recent years has been neglected, will be shot by Minnesota sportsmen instead of other water fowl this year because of the shortened duck hunting season, the conservation department of the Izaak Walton League said today.

Last year the Biological Survey called attention to the large coot population that migrated southward and spread over sloughs, marshes and lakes and urged sportsmen to reduce the numbers of these birds by taking part of their waterfowl bag in coots.

In making the suggestion the Survey authorities called attention to the fact that the mudhen has been a much maligned bird, and, contrary to popular opinion, could make a delicious dish when properly cooked.

Charley MacAndrew Wins New England Tourney

Wollaston Country Club, Quincy, Mass., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Charley MacAndrew, 24, of Quincy, diminutive Scotsman, was New England open golf champion today.

He won the title and $1,000 prize money yesterday when he finished 72 holes with a total of 289. One stroke under Johnny Farrell, Mamaroneck, N. Y., pro, who received $500 as runner up.

TOO MANY SNAKES

Los Angeles, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—"It was a fine course, and all that, judge, but there were too many rattlesnakes in the rough, and I dc slice my ball occasionally," George Ribal told Municipal Judge Robert Kenny.

"The first time I played over the San Fernando Valley club course, I sliced into the rough, he said. The caddy told me not to go after the ball, but I went anyway. I killed one snake with a niblick before I got anywhere near the ball. I've never been near the club since."

Ribal had been sued for failure to pay club dues. Judge Kenny held that one month's dues was sufficient.

"By the way, you didn't by chance tan that snake skin, did you?" asked the judge. "Save 'em."

SCHAAF AWARDED UNPOPULAR WIN OVER GRIFFITHS

CROWDS ROAR DISAPPROVAL OF VERDICT AFTER TEN ROUND CONTEST

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Ernie Schaaf, Boston heavyweight, held a 10-round decision today over Tuffy Griffiths, Chicago, but it was the most unpopular verdict won in a Chicago ring since Mickey Walker won the middleweight title from Tiger Flowers almost five years ago.

The referee and two judges voted unanimously for Schaaf, but the crowd of 15,000 roared its disapproval for more than 10 minutes after the fighters left the ring. It was the longest and loudest disapproval ever heard against a decision in the Chicago Stadium, now in its third indoor season.

When the decision was announced the crowd set up a roar, and kept it up even as late as the third round of the semi-final bout between Lafe Johnson, Chicago, and Lou Scozza, Buffalo. It was impossible for the announcer to introduce the semi-finalists because of the terrific noise. Several minor fist fights broke out to add to the confusion.

Both Schaaf and Griffiths agreed verbally to tentative plans for a return ght in October.

Outweighed 21 pounds, Griffiths made a courageous stand against the magnificently-built Schaaf. Schaaf's impressive record of seven straight knockouts did not prevent the Chicago boy from carrying the fight to his opponent. Even in many of the rounds in which Schaaf had an edge Griffiths did most of the forcing. Schaaf weighed 208, Griffiths 187.

CADDIES STRIKE

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The wage cut situation took a serious turn at the El Paso Country club when officials announced today caddies must work for 20 cents less than usual rates.

One hundred caddies walked out on strike. Pickets were posted around the club grounds. When strike breakers were employed, the strikers swarmed over the fairways and green to do battle. Police arrived in time to prevent serious injuries.

ALL BRANCHES MOVE TO RAISE RELIEF FUNDS

YANKS TO MEET ROBINS; CARDS CLASH WITH BROWNS IN BASEBALL BENEFITS

West Orange, N. J., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Billy Burke, National open champion, and George Von Elm, "business man golfer, defeated Bobby Jones and Francis Ouimet, national amateur titleholder, 8 and 7, in a 36-hole charity match here yesterday.

More than 19,000 spectators paid to see the match.

Jones was badly off his usual form, taking a 74 in the morning and a 76 in the afternoon. Burke had the lowest gross with 144 for the 36 holes.

St. Louis, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The St. Louis Browns and the pennant winning Cardinals were to meet today at Sportsman's Park, for a charity game. Advance sales totaled $20,000.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—It was charity day at Lincoln Fields today and the entire gate receipts plus a $5,000 donation from the Jocky Club were to be turned over to relief of the unemployed in Will county. Officials predicted the ticket sale would approximate $25,000.

New York, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—New York's fight for second place in the American league was interrupted today while the Yankees took time off to meet the Brooklyn Robins in the second game of an inter-city doubleheader for charity. The benefit double-header, involving all three of New York city's major league teams, is the first of its kind in history.

In the first game the Giants will meet the Robins. In the second the Robins will take on the American leaguers.

The Yankees' hopes for second place in the league were reduced yesterday when they were defeated 3 to 2 by the Washington Senators. The Senators now lead the Yanks by one and one-half games with but four games to play.

A three-run attack on Lefty Gomez in the seventh gave the Senators their victory.

Detroit and Cleveland divided a double bill in the only other scheduled American league competition. The Tigers won the first game, 9 to 7, while Cleveland took the nightcap, 6 to 2, behind the strong pitching of Clint Brown.

There were no games played in the National.

FIGHT RESULTS

By United Press

At Chicago—Ernie Schaaf, 208, Boston, won 10-round decision from Tuffy Griffiths, 187, Chicago. Larry Johnson, 175½, Chicago, won 8-round decision from Lou Scozza, 173½, Buffalo. Dave Maier, 173, Milwaukee, scored a technical knockout over Tiger Thomas, 167½, Philadelphia, after 2 minutes, 55 seconds of the 2nd round. Hymie Wiseman, 123, Des Moines, Iowa, won 5-round decision from Solly Schuman, 126, Chicago. John Schwake, 224, St. Louis, won 6-round decision from Salvatore Ruggirello, 200½, New York. Pep Justo, 151½, Madison, Wis., won 5-round decision from Phil Ross, 152¾, Chicago.

At Oakland, Calif.—Max Baer, California heavyweight, won a technical knockout over Jack Van Moy, Los Angeles (8).

At San Francisco—Ag Marino, 150, defeated Pete Meyers, 150 (10). Both are local fighters.

At St. Louis—Midget Mike O'Dowd, 130, St. Louis, defeated Mickey Genaro, 132, Hartford, Conn. (10); Lou Terry, 135, outpointed Sammy Ward, 134, Fort Worth, Tex. (15); Johnny (Peewee) Kaiser, 128, St. Louis, knocked out Babe Ruth, 124, Louisville (2); Dave Barry, 121, Springfield, Ill., knocked out Jimmy Sayers, 119½, Lafayette, Ind. (1); Frankie Doxey, 112, St. Louis, defeated Cliff Doetzel, 113, St. Louis (5).

N. Y. Giants Defeat Oklahoma Grid Team

New York, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The New York Giants of the national professional football league, defeated the Hominy Indians, Okmulgee, Okla., at the Polo grounds last night, 53 to 0.

Salem Country Club Gets 1932 Women's Open

Williamsville, N. Y., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The women's national golf championship of 1932 will be held at the Salem Country club, Salem, Mass., the United State Golf Association has announced. Dates of the tournament were not set.

Chicago, Sept. 24—(U.P.)—Coach Stagg plans to use his first team against Cornell college and his second team against Hillsdale in Saturday's double-header. Cornell is figured as much the stronger of the two teams.

Ohio State Faces Tough Schedule In Big Ten Loop

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—During Coach Sam Willaman's regime of the past two years Ohio State has won half of its Big Ten games and two out of its three big intersectional games.

This year Coach Willaman has high hopes of boosting the Buckeyes above the .500 mark and he seems to have the material to do it. Ohio State teams, however, have had a habit of failing in one or two of their crucial conference games in the past few years.

Fifteen letter men are back and the sophomore crop is well above the average. Willaman's biggest problem is to replace Wesley Fesler, all-America end who was the sparkplug of last year's team. Fesler called signals, carried the ball and did the kicking on the offense and was a bulwark on defense.

Lew Hichman, one of the best running backs in the Big Ten last year, should be a real star this season if he can overcome his fault of fumbling. Capt. Stuart Holcomb, Bill Welever, fullback who came up last year but was ineligible.

Carl Cramer, best back on last year's freshman team, and Joe Benis, a substitute last year, are leading backfield candidates.

Benis probably will play quarter back, with Hinchman and Holcomb at halves and Welever at full. Other backs include Varner, Carroll, Kee, Bandula, Valucnick, and Marshall Oliphant, cousin of Elmer Oliphant, Army's all-American of several years ago.

Carl Ehrensberger, counted on for center, turned up ineligible, and Dick Smith has been placed at that position. Another center, Bert Nasman, has been shifted to fill a weak spot at end. Charles Wingert and Eugene Kile, substitutes last year, are leading guard candidates. There is some doubt of Wingert's eligibility.

The best prospect from the freshman team is Ted Rosequist, 6 feet, 4 inches tackle who is expected to play havoc with rivals this year. Bill Bell, negro, Bob Haubrich, Eugene Baumgarten and Lawrence Fried are other tackles.

Nasman, the converted center, probably will play one end, with Junius Ferrall, reserve last year, on the other flank. Other end candidates are Rabenstein and Weaver, substitutes last year, and two sophomores, Hosket, 6 feet, 4 inches tall, and Conrad, 6 feet, 5 inches tall.

Ohio State has a tough schedule, taking on Michigan and Northwestern, co-champions last year, in its first two conference games.

CHAPTER LI.

MARGARET came up, a little out of breath. Peter was with her and one of the gardeners. She had bandage and bandage scissors in her hand, utterly ignorant as to the identity of the stranger or the extent of her accident as she was.

"Travers," she began, and then, quickly, stricken, "You!"

Delight said, smiling a little, not a pleasant smile: "You know me, too?"

"Yes," said Mrs. Lorrimer shortly. "Come, Travers—Peter—between all of you, we can get her to the house."

"But mother," began Lorrimer, wildly, frantically.

Mrs. Lorrimer looked at him a moment. Pity for him, terror, anger, all fought in her eyes for mastery. She said, slowly:

"She's in no condition to be kept standing here." She indicated Peter and the other man with a gesture of her hand. "We'll all be better off at the house," said Margaret Lorrimer.

Supported by Peter and the gardener—as Lorrimer made no move to touch her—Delight was taken to the house. Lorrimer and his mother walked beside her, a strange little procession. No word was spoken.

In the library she was put into a big chair. Peter was sent to telephone Doctor Mathews. Someone else was sent for a stimulant. Then they faced each other, alone, the three of them.

"How did this happen?" asked Mrs. Lorrimer, quietly.

"She came to me," Delight said, wearily, regarding the injured ankle which was stretched out on a footstool. "She came yesterday morning and told me—"

"Who did?" asked Lorrimer sharply.

In Loyalty's Name.

"That girl, Miss Thurston. She told me she that she knew who I was, really. I'd been fool enough to tell that young press agent, Mitchell, my name. She told me that you knew, Mrs. Lorrimer, and that apparently you were not going to tell your son. She wasn't sure what you would do. She felt that—that her loyalty lay with Lorry, and, strangely enough, with me; that it was only fair both of us should know the truth. And she asked me to give her a week in which to bring you to her point of view. After that, if you were still set on Lorry's not knowing, she would leave it up to me."

She sighed. There was a silence. She went on:

"I promised. But on an impulse I came here, found out where you lived and all. Easy enough. I overheard Lorry and—the other girl talking. I made up my mind to go away and, no matter what you decided, Mrs. Lorrimer, to stay away. I started for the gate, turned my ankle and fell."

She looked at them both, a little defiantly.

"We're all in it now," she said; "no use trying to escape. What are you going to do?"

Peter entered the room to say that Doctor Mathews would be right over.

"Go to Miss—" Mrs. Lorrimer hesitated and said, firmly, "Miss Thurston's room and ask her to please come to the library."

Peter took the message without a quiver of the eyelid and left the room.

Lorrimer said blankly:

"Where — Delight — we've searched for you, all over. There was no trace." He looked at her. This was the girl he had loved and lost. She had returned to him. That other girl had been an impostor. Yet he had loved her, thinking her Delight. But this was Delight.

Truth at Last.

Delight Harford said, a little harshly:

"Does that matter now? Time enough for all that latter."

Peter returned. He had, in his old hand, a ring and an envelope with a little penciled scrawl across its surface.

"Miss Thurston is not in her room," he reported.

Mrs. Lorrimer took the envelope. She looked at it a moment, said blankly, "She's gone."

Delight smiled, a little. Gone. Well, she'd done her best for the girl. She could do no more. She'd been willing to clear out but now . . . She looked about the lovely room and drew a deep breath. Comfort, safety, if she played the cards right. Should she play them . . . at all?

Mrs. Lorrimer dropped the envelope on a table. She stood up and faced her son and this stranger—this woman she disliked so intensely. She said, with a hard white austerity:

"There is, as I see it, just one question which is important now. Did you," she asked Delight, "did you marry my son? If so, have you proofs of that marriage? Are you married?" she repeated.

Delight hesitated. Looked at Lorrimer. Waited. Lorrimer spoke, and his face was gray.

"I remember now," he said heavily. "No!"

"No," repeated Lorrimer.

His mother had gone perfectly white. Now with a great rush, as of relief, her color came flooding back again.

Lorrimer went on, as Delight did not speak.

"As soon as I saw her again, I knew — I remembered—everything."

"But," Margaret interrupted, "you thought that Mary Lou was Delight—and you didn't remember then—you clung to your belief—or was it really belief? that you were married to her."

"Is that her name?" asked Lorrimer, oddly. He had been forbidding himself to think of—the other girl. Even when Peter had come downstairs to report that she was not in her room, not, it seemed, in the house, he had kept his mind

"Did you marry my son?" asked Mrs. Lorrimer.

away from her. He had to get this present, vital situation clear, settled.

Waiting Her Cue.

His mother nodded, abstractedly. And Lorrimer went on, thinking it all out, a furrow of painful concentration between his brows:

"No, I didn't remember when I saw her. She—was just my memory come incarnate, my memory of a girl I had loved, and who was lost to me. But when the real girl came, I knew at once. "Delight," he looked at the woman sitting, exhausted physically, in the big chair, a woman who was quite patient, waiting, it seemed for her cue to enter this new and complicated drama, a woman who appeared to hold herself in leash. "Delight, you know, you remember? We planned to be married—by special license. I gave you that ring. The earliest day on which we could be married was the day my leave was up. We were to be married, I was to return immediately to the front. Then my leave was shortened, by 36 hours. I was recalled. And went—without marrying you. Do you remember?"

"Of course," said Delight, speaking for the first time in many long minutes. She had kept quiet, waiting to see what he would recall and how much. She already knew, of course, the story of his strange obsession, the obsession that he had been married.

BRAINERD GRIDDERS MEET WADENA ELEVEN HERE FRIDAY

OBSERVERS SEE WELL BALANCED LOCAL OUTFIT

MEMORY OF SCORELESS TIE INTENSIFIES RIVALRY BE TWEEN SCHOOLS

A well balanced and well conditioned football team is what observers saw at the Brainerd high school athletic field last night as Coaches Bill Dammann and Ben Tayor sent their proteges through the last strenuous workout before the season's inaugural Friday with Wadena.

Wadena to Outweigh Locals

Rivalry, generated to a high pitch because of last year's scoreless tie, will break out into hostilities at 4 o'clock. And, according to a report from Wadena Coach Bill Schermak has moulded together another of his surprise machines. A week ago they trounced a husky Detroit Lakes eleven by a 12 to 0 score.

In the opinion of the few who saw Wadena, Brainerd's opposition when the lid is pried off the local grid kettle tomorrow, will outweigh the home boys ten pounds to the man. Draw your own conclusions from this fact but to a football man it offers a decided advantage.

The blonde-haired head mentor of Brainerd has not deviated from his policy of keeping "mum" on his starting lineup almost until the opening gun sounds. But, a possible machine has been moulded together through observation of the practice sessions and fans will find it not far wrong to expect a lineup something like this: Bob Wygle, le; Jackson, lt; Edstrom, lg; McPherson, Garvey or Walt, c; Anderson, rg; Junior Wygle, rt; Swanson, re; Gabiou, qb; Templeton, lh; Koeck, rh; Foster, fb.

Signal Practice Tonight

Then there is White and Dahl who are both scrapping for backfield berths. They will undoubtedly see service as will Coffee, Rubins and McClearie, aspirants for tackle positions and Billy Koeck and Koering who have ambitions to become guards.

After several sessions of heavy scrimmage, Coach Damman will taper off practice tonight with a light signal drill. He will also probably school Gabiou in polishing off his passing and Foster in his kicking. Damman's right hand man, Taylor, will have his hands full with a review of general fundamentals.

Probable lineup for Wadena has not been announced.

Ribal had been sued for failure to pay club dues. Judge Kenny held that one month's dues was sufficient.

"By the way, you didn't by chance tan that snake skin, did you?" asked the judge. "Save 'em."

SCHAAF AWARDED UNPOPULAR WIN OVER GRIFFITHS

CROWDS ROAR DISAPPROVAL OF VERDICT AFTER TEN ROUND CONTEST

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Ernie Schaaf, Boston heavyweight, held a 10-round decision today over Tuffy Griffiths, Chicago, but it was the most unpopular verdict won in a Chicago ring since Mickey Walker won the middleweight title from Tiger Flowers almost five years ago.

The referee and two judges voted unanimously for Schaaf, but the crowd of 15,000 roared its disapproval for more than 10 minutes after the fighters left the ring. It was the longest and loudest disapproval ever heard against a decision in the Chicago Stadium, now in its third indoor season.

When the decision was announced the crowd set up a roar, and kept it up even as late as the third round of the semi-final bout between Lafe Johnson, Chicago, and Lou Scozza, Buffalo. It was impossible for the announcer to introduce the semi-finalists because of the terrific noise. Several minor fist fights broke out to add to the confusion.

Both Schaaf and Griffiths agreed verbally to tentative plans for a return ght in October.

Outweighed 21 pounds, Griffiths made a courageous stand against the magnificently-built Schaaf. Schaaf's impressive record of seven straight knockouts did not prevent the Chicago boy from carrying the fight to his opponent. Even in many of the rounds in which Schaaf had an edge Griffiths did most of the forcing. Schaaf weighed 208, Griffiths 187.

CADDIES STRIKE

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The wage cut situation took a serious turn at the El Paso Country club when officials announced today caddies must work for 20 cents less than usual rates.

One hundred caddies walked out on strike. Pickets were posted around the club grounds.

When strike breakers were employed, the strikers swarmed over the fairways and green to do battle. Police arrived in time to prevent serious injuries.

ALL BRANCHES MOVE TO RAISE RELIEF FUNDS

YANKS TO MEET ROBINS; CARDS CLASH WITH BROWNS IN BASEBALL BENEFITS

West Orange, N. J., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Billy Burke, National open champion, and George Von Elm, "business man golfer, defeated Bobby Jones and Francis Ouimet, national amateur titleholder, 8 and 7, in a 36-hole charity match here yesterday.

More than 19,000 spectators paid to see the match.

Jones was badly off his usual form, taking a 74 in the morning and a 76 in the afternoon. Burke had the lowest gross with 144 for the 36 holes.

St. Louis, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The St. Louis Browns and the pennant winning Cardinals were to meet today at Sportsman's Park, for a charity game. Advance sales totaled $20,000.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—It was charity day at Lincoln Fields today and the entire gate receipts plus a $5,000 donation from the Jocky Club were to be turned over to relief of the unemployed in Will county. Officials predicted the ticket sale would approximate $25,000.

New York, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—New York's fight for second place in the American league was interrupted today while the Yankees took time off to meet the Brooklyn Robins in the second game of an inter-city doubleheader for charity. The benefit double-header, involving all three of New York city's major league teams, is the first of its kind in history.

In the first game the Giants will meet the Robins. In the second the Robins will take on the American leaguers.

The Yankees' hopes for second place in the league were reduced yesterday when they were defeated 3 to 2 by the Washington Senators. The Senators now lead the Yanks by one and one-half games with but four games to play.

A three-run attack on Lefty Gomez in the seventh gave the Senators their victory.

Detroit and Cleveland divided a double bill in the only other scheduled American league competition. The Tigers won the first game, 9 to 7, while Cleveland took the nightcap, 6 to 2, behind the strong pitching of Clint Brown.

There were no games played in the National.

FIGHT RESULTS

(1); Frankie Doxey, 112, St. Louis, defeated Cliff Doetzel, 113, St. Louis (5).

N. Y. Giants Defeat Oklahoma Grid Team

New York, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The New York Giants of the national professional football league, defeated the Hominy Indians, Okmulgee, Okla., at the Polo grounds last night, 53 to 0.

Salem Country Club Gets 1932 Women's Open

Williamsville, N. Y., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The women's national golf championship of 1932 will be held at the Salem Country club, Salem, Mass., the United State Golf Association has announced. Dates of the tournament were not set.

Chicago, Sept. 24—(U.P.)—Coach Stagg plans to use his first team against Cornell college and his second team against Hillsdale in Saturday's double-header. Cornell is figured as much the stronger of the two teams.

Ohio State Faces Tough Schedule In Big Ten Loop

Chicago, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—During Coach Sam Willaman's regime of the past two years Ohio State has won half of its Big Ten games and two out of its three big intersectional games.

This year Coach Willaman has high hopes of boosting the Buckeyes above the .500 mark and he seems to have the material to do it. Ohio State teams, however, have had a habit of failing in one or two of their crucial conference games in the past few years.

Fifteen letter men are back and the sophomore crop is well above the average. Willaman's biggest problem is to replace Wesley Fesler, all-America end who was the sparkplug of last year's team. Fesler called signals, carried the ball and did the kicking on the offense and was a bulwark on defense.

Lew Hichman, one of the best running backs in the Big Ten last year, should be a real star this season if he can overcome his fault of fumbling. Capt. Stuart Holcomb, Bill Welever, fullback who came up last year but was ineligible.

Carl Cramer, best back on last year's freshman team, and Joe Benis, a substitute last year, are leading backfield candidates.

Benis probably will play quarter back, with Hinchman and Holcomb at halves and Welever at full. Other backs include Varner, Carroll, Kee, Bandula, Valucnick, and Marshall Oliphant, cousin of Elmer Oliphant, Army's all-American of several years ago.

Carl Ehrensberger, counted on for center, turned up ineligible, and Dick Smith has been placed at that position. Another center, Bert Nasman, has been shifted to fill a weak spot at end. Charles Wingert and Eugene Kile, substitutes last year, are leading guard candidates. There is some doubt of Wingert's eligibility.

The best prospect from the freshman team is Ted Rosequist, 6 feet, 4 inches tackle who is expected to play havoc with rivals this year. Bill Bell, negro, Bob Haubrich, Eugene Baumgarten and Lawrence Fried are other tackles.

Nasman, the converted center, probably will play one end, with Junius Ferrall, reserve last year, on the other flank. Other end candidates are Rabenstein and Weaver, substitutes last year, and two sophomores, Hosket, 6 feet, 4 inches tall, and Conrad, 6 feet, 5 inches tall.

Ohio State has a tough schedule, taking on Michigan and Northwestern, co-champions last year, in its first two conference games.

CHAPTER LI.

MARGARET came up, a little out of breath. Peter was with her and one of the gardeners. She had bandage and bandage scissors in her hand, utterly ignorant as to the identity of the stranger or the extent of her accident as she was.

"Travers," she began, and then, quickly, stricken, "You!"

Delight said, smiling a little, not a pleasant smile: "You know me, too?"

"Yes," said Mrs. Lorrimer shortly. "Come, Travers—Peter—between all of you, we can get her to the house."

"But mother," began Lorrimer, wildly, frantically.

Mrs. Lorrimer looked at him a moment. Pity for him, terror, anger, all fought in her eyes for mastery. She said, slowly:

"She's in no condition to be kept standing here." She indicated Peter and the other man with a gesture of her hand. "We'll all be better off at the house," said Margaret Lorrimer.

Supported by Peter and the gardener—as Lorrimer made no move to touch her—Delight was taken to the house. Lorrimer and his mother walked beside her, a strange little procession. No word was spoken.

In the library she was put into a big chair. Peter was sent to telephone Doctor Mathews. Someone else was sent for a stimulant. Then they faced each other, alone, the three of them.

"How did this happen?" asked Mrs. Lorrimer, quietly.

"She came to me," Delight said, wearily, regarding the injured ankle which was stretched out on a footstool. "She came yesterday morning and told me—"

"Who did?" asked Lorrimer sharply.

In Loyalty's Name.

"That girl, Miss Thurston. She told me she that she knew who I was, really. I'd been fool enough to tell that young press agent, Mitchell, my name. She told me that you knew, Mrs. Lorrimer, and that apparently you were not going to tell your son. She wasn't sure what you would do. She felt that—that her loyalty lay with Lorry, and, strangely enough, with me; that it was only fair both of us should know the truth. And she asked me to give her a week in which to bring you to her point of view. After that, if you were still set on Lorry's not knowing, she would leave it up to me."

She sighed. There was a silence. She went on:

"I promised. But on an impulse I came here, found out where you lived and all. Easy enough. I overheard Lorry and—the other girl talking. I made up my mind to go away and, no matter what you decided, Mrs. Lorrimer, to stay away. I started for the gate, turned my ankle and fell."

She looked at them both, a little defiantly.

"We're all in it now," she said; "no use trying to escape. What are you going to do?"

Peter entered the room to say that Doctor Mathews would be right over.

"Go to Miss—" Mrs. Lorrimer hesitated and said, firmly, "Miss Thurston's room and ask her to please come to the library."

Peter took the message without a quiver of the eyelid and left the room.

Lorrimer said blankly:

"Where — Delight — we've searched for you, all over. There was no trace." He looked at her. This was the girl he had loved and lost. She had returned to him. That other girl had been an impostor. Yet he had loved her, thinking her Delight. But this was Delight.

Truth at Last.

Delight Harford said, a little harshly:

"Does that matter now? Time enough for all that latter."

Peter returned. He had, in his old hand, a ring and an envelope with a little penciled scrawl across its surface.

"Miss Thurston is not in her room," he reported.

Mrs. Lorrimer took the envelope. She looked at it a moment, said blankly, "She's gone."

Delight smiled, a little. Gone. Well, she'd done her best for the girl. She could do no more. She'd been willing to clear out but now . . . She looked about the lovely room and drew a deep breath. Comfort, safety, if she played the cards right. Should she play them . . . at all?

Mrs. Lorrimer dropped the envelope on a table. She stood up and faced her son and this stranger—this woman she disliked so intensely. She said, with a hard white austerity:

"There is, as I see it, just one question which is important now. Did you," she asked Delight, "did you marry my son? If so, have you proofs of that marriage? Are you married?" she repeated.

Delight hesitated. Looked at Lorrimer. Waited. Lorrimer spoke, and his face was gray.

"I remember now," he said heavily. "No!"

"No," repeated Lorrimer.

His mother had gone perfectly white. Now with a great rush, as of relief, her color came flooding back again.

Lorrimer went on, as Delight did not speak.

"As soon as I saw her again, I knew — I remembered—everything."

"But," Margaret interrupted, "you thought that Mary Lou was Delight—and you didn't remember then—you clung to your belief—or was it really belief? that you were married to her."

"Is that her name?" asked Lorrimer, oddly. He had been forbidding himself to think of—the other girl. Even when Peter had come downstairs to report that she was not in her room, not, it seemed, in the house, he had kept his mind away from her. He had to get this present, vital situation clear, settled.

"Did you marry my son?" asked Mrs. Lorrimer.

Waiting Her Cue.

His mother nodded, abstractedly. And Lorrimer went on, thinking it all out, a furrow of painful concentration between his brows:

"No, I didn't remember when I saw her. She—was just my memory come incarnate, my memory of a girl I had loved, and who was lost to me. But when the real girl came, I knew at once. "Delight," he looked at the woman sitting, exhausted physically, in the big chair, a woman who was quite patient, waiting, it seemed for her cue to enter this new and complicated drama, a woman who appeared to hold herself in leash. "Delight, you know, you remember? We planned to be married—by special license. I gave you that ring. The earliest day on which we could be married was the day my leave was up. We were to be married, I was to return immediately to the front. Then my leave was shortened, by 36 hours. I was recalled. And went—without marrying you. Do you remember?"

"Of course," said Delight, speaking for the first time in many long minutes. She had kept quiet, waiting to see what he would recall and how much. She already knew, of course, the story of his strange obsession, the obsession that he had been married.

RECENT HIGHWAY SURVEY REVEALS TRAFFIC INCREASE

NOT CONSIDERED GOOD INDEX AS CONSTRUCTION WORK SHIFTED MUCH TRAFFIC

An increase of 1.9 per cent in the number of vehicles using the Minnesota trunk highways, is shown by the annual traffic census taken by the Minnesota Highway department. Although the increase is not as large as in some years, Commissioner C. M. Babcock says it indicates that Minnesota is in better shape than other states, many of which have shown a decrease in their traffic counts.

The increase, however, is not considered as good an index of actual traffic as gasoline consumption, Mr. Babcock adds. Gasoline in shipments for the first eight months of 1931, deductnig gasoline used for other than motor vehicle purposes, were 11 per cent greater than in the same months last year. The heavy construction program, which reached its peak in August, when the traffic count was taken, shifted much traffic to the county roads.

The census summary showed an increase in Minnesota passenger cars and trucks of all classes, while busses, horse-drawn vehicles, and automobiles from other states fell off slightly. These comparisons are based on counts at 309 places where counts were made last year. Counts were made at 369 points, but due to detours and construction, there were many routes where the counts were not taken at the same places both years, and these are omitted in making comparisons. The count was taken for seven consecutive days, August 3 to 9, from 6 a. m. to midnight.

Back Frim Trip to Old Home in Sweden

South Oak Lawn—Mrs. Klos Schone has returned to her home after spending several months visiting with old friends and relatives at her old home in Sweden. She reports a good trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Thurwall, Frank Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Olson of Duluth were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cunningham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Palmerschein and family have moved to Royalton and Chas. Ewe has rented the Newman farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson and children motored to Gull River Sunday where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson.

Mildred Sandberg has resumed her studies at school, after recovering from burns. She was fortunate as the burns healed nicely leaving no scars about her face or neck.

Misses Donna and Marbella Cunningham attended the National Dramatic Instructions given at the farmers room at the courthouse.

Fred Tracy, maintenance man, dragged our roads Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Goedderz transacted business in Brainerd Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wickland, Mrs. Anna Trommald and Miss Gladys Trommald were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Asphoim Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Wicklande and little daughter of Brainerd were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sagli Sunday evening.

Heller brothers and the Asphoim boys motored to Merrideld Sunday where they visited with friends.

Adolph, Floyd Sandberg and Carl Borg motored to Riverton Sunday.

Small Piece of Land Yields 600 Lbs. Squash

Woodrow — Mrs. J. P. Dullum has some very large ripe squash, at least 600 pounds of squash on a small patch already planted to raspberries.

Jack Frost is holding off and allowing everything to ripen in fine shape.

J. P. Dullum called on Matrin Olson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kresack and two daughters of Superior, Wis., were visiting at Thad Cooley's over the week end. Mrs. Kresack is Mrs. Cooley's daughter. They returned to Superior Tuesday and Mrs. Cooley and daughter Juanita accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond King and Virginia visited at Dullum's Tuesday evening. Raymond is to help harvest the corn and spuds.

The school board met at Dullum's Tuesday noon.

John Shuffelen, Sr., has the Eide threshing rig.

Andrew Shuffelen is hauling black dirt to Brainerd and slab wood home. Quite the reverse of the good old days.

Miss Margaret Duich of Riverton was a week end guest of Evelyn Dullum.

We hear that Dan Hauser and family are to move into the house recently vacated by Al Sather and family.

Ole Simonson of Pine Shores has traded his property for city property and has moved to Brainerd.

Mrs. King has moved her new home back off the highway. The new highway begins to look like a real road.

Mrs. Andrew Shuffelen is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmolke and children were visiting relatives in Woodrow Sunday.

Attempt at Hawks' Speed Record Fails

Miami, Fla., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Abroken tail skid today forced Lou Geichers, aviation editor of Liberty magazine, to abandon an attempted record-breaking round trip flight from New York to Havana.

Reichers decided to abandon the flight rather than risk a crack up in landing at Havana. He said the tail skid was broken in taking off from New York.

Ugo V. d'Annunzio, a son of the famous Italian poet, acocmpanied Reichers as a passenger on the flight here from New York. They landed at Pan-American Airways airport for refueling at 8:55 a. m., six hours and ten minutes after leaving New York.

Old Grist Mill Works Again

Scituate, Mass., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The wheels of a grist mill built 291 years ago turned again recently as a feature of the 15th anniversary celebration of the Scituate Historical Society. The old mill stands near Old Oaken Bucket pond, in the Greenbush section.

EVANGELIST TELLS OF CONVERSION TO CHRISTIAN LIVING

FATHER GIVES HIM MONEY TO COME TO AMERICA, SAW FOLLY OF WAYS AT FRISCO

Evangelist Louis O. Rynning included his personal testimony in his message last night at the Full Gospel Assembly. His subject was "From Slave to Son."

He told how he, a son of a respected Methodist minister in Norway, had led a life of sin until his father, who felt he was bringing disgrace upon the family, ordered him from his home and gave him money to come to America. After arriving here he continued his old life until one night in his room in San Francisco he was converted and changed from a slave to sin into a son of God.

The evangelist had the attention of his entire audience during the whole of his message. His songs and choruses are pleasing.

He will bring a message tonight on divine healing and pray for the sick.

Delayed Dynamite Blast Kills Slayton Farmer

Slayton, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—John W. Foster, 68, a farmer, was instantly killed and his body thrown high in the air by a delayed dynamite explosion here recently. He had waited about 20 minutes before returning to replace the seemingly defective fuse.

Falls Asleep While Smoking in Bed; Dies

Roubaix, S. D., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—David Reasaw, 76, pioneer resident, burned to death at his home as the result of a fire which started when the aged man was smoking in bed, a coroner's inquest revealed today.

Reasaw's body was discovered by a neighbor. He lived alone.

Geologists Asked to Explain Cracks in Ground on Farm

Garretson, S. D., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Geologist were asked today to explain the deep cracks that have appeared in the ground on the farm of Adolph Carlson.

In a field of alfalfa cracks have opened up in the ground, some of them several feet deep, and the ground in the nearby region has the appearance of having caved in at these spots.

Clarence Carlson, a son of the farmer, was plowing with a tractor when one of the wheels of the tractor went into a rut. He thought nothing of it, and started out again. After driving a short distance the earth caved under one side of the machine, so that the wheels spun clear when the tractor rested on the ground.

Upon investigation it was found that the earth in some cases had dropped from two to six feet, with one hole about 12 feet deep, in some places along these cracks so that one may trace their path through the entire field.

Carlson walked across the field some days before the fissures were discovered, but at that time the surface of the ground was smooth, he declared.

Bemidji Indian Must Serve 2-Year Term

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Sam Rain, full blooded Chippewa Indian, must serve a two year sentence in Leavenworth federal penitentiary for an attack on another Indian at Bemidji, as the result of his sentencing by Judge unnar H. Nordbye. Rain was charged with chopping three fingers from the hand of Battiste Jourdaine with an axe on May 23 while drunk.

Fourth Calf Born

Phillipsburg, Kan., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Over-production, which some say has caused the present depression, does not bother John Wyril, farmer. He welcomes it—in a certain form. One of his cows recently gave birth to her fourth calf in one year. She had two set of twins. Wyril says mother and children are doing fine.

ELEVATOR M WHEAT SHOWS NO. 1 TEST

REPORT MADE TO WAREHOUSE COMMISSION UPON REQUEST OF FARM FIRM

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Wheat stored in the Farmers Union Terminal association elevator M was officially reported to test No. 1 dark northern, Edward Johnson, chief deputy state grain inspector, announced today.

The report was made to the state railroad and warehouse commission at the request of the Farmers National Grain corporation, present owner of the elevator. More than 1,000,000 bushels in the elevator were weighed and graded in the checkup, Johnson announced.

The checkup on the grain was instituted as a result of charges by State Senator Gerald T. Mullin, Minneapolis, that the railroad and warehouse commission had "connived" with Farmers Union Terminal association officials to hide alleged grain samples padding.

The report on the wheat was started August 1, Johnson said.

Fear of Dentist Fatal

Seattle, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Fear of a dentist's chair was believed to have been responsible for the death of Phyllis Ann Goodwin, 18, who collapsed and died as a dentist prepared to fill a cavity in one of her teeth. She suffered from a weak heart.

Boys--with Pimply Faces

Here's Quick Help for You!

Here's the way to get rid of those embarrassing pimples in short order.

Just bathe your face with soap and hot water—just as hot as you can stand. Then apply Moone's Emerald Oil. Massage it gently into the skin. Leave a little of the oil on your skin all night.

In the morning, repeat the treatment, but not quite so strenuously.

In a few days you'll see an amazing difference—not a pimple on your face!

But don't waste any time just thinking about it—get right after those ugly, disfiguring pimples today. Get a bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil from Johnson's Pharmacy, Economy Drug Co., H. P. Dunn, Druggist, or any other first-class druggist. He will give your money back if Emerald Oil doesn't clear your face.—Adv.

Small Piece of Land Yields 600 Lbs. Squash

Woodrow — Mrs. J. P. Dullum has some very large ripe squash, at least 600 pounds of squash on a small patch already planted to raspberries.

Jack Frost is holding off and allowing everything to ripen in fine shape.

J. P. Dullum called on Matrin Olson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kresack and two daughters of Superior, Wis., were visiting at Thad Cooley's over the week end. Mrs. Kresack is Mrs. Cooley's daughter. They returned to Superior Tuesday and Mrs. Cooley and daughter Juanita accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond King and Virginia visited at Dullum's Tuesday evening. Raymond is to help harvest the corn and spuds.

The school board met at Dullum's Tuesday noon.

John Shuffelen, Sr., has the Eide threshing rig.

Andrew Shuffelen is hauling black dirt to Brainerd and slab wood home. Quite the reverse of the good old days.

Miss Margaret Duich of Riverton was a week end guest of Evelyn Dullum.

We hear that Dan Hauser and family are to move into the house recently vacated by Al Sather and family.

Ole Simonson of Pine Shores has traded his property for city property and has moved to Brainerd.

Mrs. King has moved her new home back off the highway. The new highway begins to look like a real road.

Mrs. Andrew Shuffelen is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmolke and children were visiting relatives in Woodrow Sunday.

Attempt at Hawks' Speed Record Fails

Miami, Fla., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—A broken tail skid today forced Lou Geichers, aviation editor of Liberty magazine, to abandon an attempted record-breaking round trip flight from New York to Havana.

Reichers decided to abandon the flight rather than risk a crack up in landing at Havana. He said the tail skid was broken in taking off from New York.

Ugo V. d'Annunzio, a son of the famous Italian poet, acocmpanied Reichers as a passenger on the flight here from New York. They landed at Pan-American Airways airport for refueling at 8:55 a. m., six hours and ten minutes after leaving New York.

Old Grist Mill Works Again

Scituate, Mass., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The wheels of a grist mill built 291 years ago turned again recently as a feature of the 15th anniversary celebration of the Scituate Historical Society. The old mill stands near Old Oaken Bucket pond, in the Greenbush section.

EVANGELIST TELLS OF CONVERSION TO CHRISTIAN LIVING

FATHER GIVES HIM MONEY TO COME TO AMERICA, SAW FOLLY OF WAYS AT FRISCO

Evangelist Louis O. Rynning included his personal testimony in his message last night at the Full Gospel Assembly. His subject was "From Slave to Son."

He told how he, a son of a respected Methodist minister in Norway, had led a life of sin until his father, who felt he was bringing disgrace upon the family, ordered him from his home and gave him money to come to America. After arriving here he continued his old life until one night in his room in San Francisco he was converted and changed from a slave to sin into a son of God.

The evangelist had the attention of his entire audience during the whole of his message. His songs and choruses are pleasing.

He will bring a message tonight on divine healing and pray for the sick.

Delayed Dynamite Blast Kills Slayton Farmer

Slayton, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—John W. Foster, 68, a farmer, was instantly killed and his body thrown high in the air by a delayed dynamite explosion here recently. He had waited about 20 minutes before returning to replace the seemingly defective fuse.

Falls Asleep While Smoking in Bed; Dies

Roubaix, S. D., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—David Reasaw, 76, pioneer resident, burned to death at his home as the result of a fire which started when the aged man was smoking in bed, a coroner's inquest revealed today.

Reasaw's body was discovered by a neighbor. He lived alone.

Geologists Asked to Explain Cracks in Ground on Farm

Garretson, S. D., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Geologist were asked today to explain the deep cracks that have appeared in the ground on the farm of Adolph Carlson.

In a field of alfalfa cracks have opened up in the ground, some of them several feet deep, and the ground in the nearby region has the appearance of having caved in at these spots.

Clarence Carlson, a son of the farmer, was plowing with a tractor when one of the wheels of the tractor went into a rut. He thought nothing of it, and started out again. After driving a short distance the earth caved under one side of the machine, so that the wheels spun clear when the tractor rested on the ground.

Upon investigation it was found that the earth in some cases had dropped from two to six feet, with one hole about 12 feet deep, in some places along these cracks so that one may trace their path through the entire field.

Carlson walked across the field some days before the fissures were discovered, but at that time the surface of the ground was smooth, he declared.

Bemidji Indian Must Serve 2-Year Term

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Sam Rain, full blooded Chippewa Indian, must serve a two year sentence in Leavenworth federal penitentiary for an attack on another Indian at Bemidji, as the result of his sentencing by Judge unnar H. Nordbye. Rain was charged with chopping three fingers from the hand of Battiste Jourdaine with an axe on May 23 while drunk.

Fourth Calf Born

Phillipsburg, Kan., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Over-production, which some say has caused the present depression, does not bother John Wyril, farmer. He welcomes it—in a certain form. One of his cows recently gave birth to her fourth calf in one year. She had two set of twins. Wyril says mother and children are doing fine.

ELEVATOR M WHEAT SHOWS NO. 1 TEST

REPORT MADE TO WAREHOUSE COMMISSION UPON REQUEST OF FARM FIRM

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Wheat stored in the Farmers Union Terminal association elevator M was officially reported to test No. 1 dark northern, Edward Johnson, chief deputy state grain inspector, announced today.

The report was made to the state railroad and warehouse commission at the request of the Farmers National Grain corporation, present owner of the elevator. More than 1,000,000 bushels in the elevator were weighed and graded in the checkup, Johnson announced.

The checkup on the grain was instituted as a result of charges by State Senator Gerald T. Mullin, Minneapolis, that the railroad and warehouse commission had "connived" with Farmers Union Terminal association officials to hide alleged grain samples padding.

The report on the wheat was started August 1, Johnson said.

Fear of Dentist Fatal

Seattle, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Fear of a dentist's chair was believed to have been responsible for the death of Phyllis Ann Goodwin, 18, who collapsed and died as a dentist prepared to fill a cavity in one of her teeth. She suffered from a weak heart.

Boys--with Pimply Faces

Here's Quick Help for You!

Here's the way to get rid of those embarrassing pimples in short order. Just bathe your face with soap and hot water—just as hot as you can stand. Then apply Moone's Emerald Oil. Massage it gently into the skin. Leave a little of the oil on your skin all night.

In the morning, repeat the treatment, but not quite so strenuously.

In a few days you'll see an amazing difference—not a pimple on your face!

But don't waste any time just thinking about it—get right after those ugly, disfiguring pimples today. Get a bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil from Johnson's Pharmacy, Economy Drug Co., H. P. Dunn, Druggist, or any other first-class druggist. He will give your money back if Emerald Oil doesn't clear your face.—Adv.

ANNOUNCE DATES AND PLANS FOR 1932 STATE FAIR

THIS YEAR'S FAIR SURPASSED ALL EXPECTATIONS IN BOTH ATTENDANCE, RECEIPTS

With the 1931 State Fair hardly closed the dates for next year's big exposition have been set by the Board of Managers. The 1932 Fair will be held from September 3 to 10.

The management is looking forward optimistically to another year. Despite the intense heat and general conditions that mitigated against this year's Fair, the management is going to be able to pay all bills, announces Raymond A. Lee, secretary.

"The 1931 Minnesota State Fair surpassed the expectations of the management in both attendance and receipts," said Mr. Lee. "Although other state fairs have sustained losses ranging from $35,000 to $100,000 and reduction in attendance from 15 to 60 per cent, our attendance was 388,515, or only 15 per cent less than a year ago, when a six-year record was established. Our receipts naturally were less than in 1930 but so was our budget. As a result the Fair will be able to approximately break even. While our premiums and purses were substantially the same as a year ago, the savings that were made in the various departments of the Fair without cheapening the educational or entertainment features made possible this unusual achievement."

D. D. McEachin, president, considers this year's Fair the best ever. He says:

"The 1931 State Fair from an educational standpoint set a new high mark for subsequent Fairs to shoot at. Both in quality and quantity of exhibits did this year's exposition excel. The Northwest Livestock Show, featuring 6,000 head of horses, cattle, sheep and swine, was a record breaker. The displays of farm crops, despite the adverse weather, was remarkable, while the fruit and flower show topped those of recent years. Likewise the poultry, bee and honey, the work of the women, boys and girls, the machinery, fish and game, fine arts and state's exhibits were far above the average.

"The entertainment program, too, was of a higher caliber than ever before. The evening grandstand show World on Parade, was the best in the Fair's history. All in all, the management is elated over its splendid record this year."

Sentences Man to Fifteen Nights in the Workhouse

St. Paul, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—"Fifteen nights in the workhouse," was the sentence pronounced by Judge Clayton S. Parks on L. A. Larson, milkman, who was accused of driving while drunk.

Larson, who pleaded guilty to the sentence, feared he might lose his job if he were away for 15 days, the usual sentence given in a case of this kind.

And because of Judge Park's leniency the night guard at the workhouse now will suffer as will Larson. Larson will have to be awakened at about 3:30 a. m. each day and ushered out of his cell to assume his duties. It will be up to the guard to see that Larson gets "on the job" every morning.

Under the arrangement Larson will enter the workhouse every afternoon upon the compeltion of his route and remain until the following morning.

Corn Harvest Nearly Over in Rosebud Co.

Burke, S. D., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Practically all the corn in Rosebud county was cut and shocked today.

There will be no corn to husk, and many of the farmers will thresh and shred their fodder, since most of the winter feed will depend on corn fodder. Feed is scarce in this grasshopper infested territory, and hot weather has caused a water shortage.

Oxford Debating Team to Meet St. Thomas

St. Paul, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Oxford university's debating team will meet the St. Thomas college team here Nov. 9, it was announced today.

Acceptance of a challenge to debate the local college was received recently by St. Thomas authorities. The Oxford university team is traveling through the United States under the auspices of the National Student Federation of America, New York.

The question for debate is: "Resolved, That American civilization is a greater danger to the World than that of Russia."

The St. Thomas team will uphold the negative side of the issue.

LITTLE DANGER OF FOREST FIRES IN S. D. SPREADING

PATROL OF 300 TO 500 MEN PACE FIRE LINE TO PREVENT FURTHER OUTBREAKS

Deadwood, S. D., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—While nearly 300 to 500 men are patrolling the fire line in Rochford, Dumont, Nahant, and Crook'd Tower vicinity, there is little, if any danger, that the fires will spread, according to the forest office at Deadwood today.

The burned area is located in the central part of the hills, partly in Pennington and Lawrence counties, between state highways 83 and 85. The largest and most badly burned section is farther back in the wilder portion of the Black Hills.

"The fires have not marred the scenic beauty of the hils," R. L. Bronson, of the Associated Commercial clubs of the Black Hills said. "The damage has been devastating but the burnt area is only a small fraction of the entire Black Hills area.

Concert Season to Feature Mary Garden

St. Paul, Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Mary Garden, noted operatic star, will be the soloist with the Minneapolis symphony orchestra when the Twin Cities concert season opens at the Northrop Memorial auditorium, Oct. 23.

Henri Verbrugghen will conduct the initial concert which will be held on the plan adopted last year when St. Paul and Minneapolis appearances were merged into one at the Northrop auditorium.

Among the other outstanding artists who will appear with the orchestra this season are Mischa Elman, violinist; Rachmaninoff, pianist; Lotte Lehman and Tito Schipa, soloists.

Pastor Outguesses Satan

Upland, Calif., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—When warm weather sends church-goers a-golfing on Sundays, Rev. C. F. Jones, of the Westminster Presbyterian church, outgames Satan by moving his services to a mountain cabin near here owned by the church. The congregation goes en masse to the cooler canyon.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

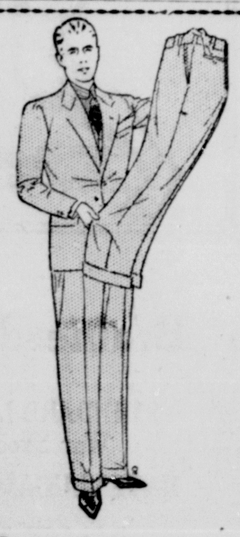

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

COMMANDER EXPRESSES SATISFACTION OVER SUCCESSFUL MAIDEN FLIGHT

Akron, O., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The U. S. S. Akron, unanimously acclaimed "airworthy" after a successful maiden voyage, was made ready for further tests today to prove its right to become the flagship of America's lighter-than-air fleet.

Expressing himself as "satisfied" with the first flight, Lieut. Commander Charles A. Rosendahl, skipper of the giant airship, was to confer with the naval board of inspection and survey on the date and route for the second trial trip aloft. He indicated the "test" would be made either tomorrow or Saturday.

"The Akron lifted a load of 113 men, the largest number ever carried in an airship, on its first flight," the skipper said. "We cruised for three hours and 47 minutes, and are well satisfied with the performance of the ship. The ZRS4 is an innovation in airship design and construction, but there is every reason to believe this type of ship will be a successful one."

Charles Francis Adams, secretary of the navy, who was aboard when the Akron swung away from the Goodyear-Zeppelin Corp. dock here, joined Commander Rosendahl in expresssions of satisfaction.

"The appearance of material and ease of handling are a credit to the workmanship of our people in a new art and to their care and skill in design," he asserted. "The navy is fortunate to have completed so important an adjunct to our national defense."

Octet Hatch 4,000 Fish

Hutchinson, Kan., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Four pair of fish placed in a pond last winter at the Catte Fish Hatcheries, near here, hatched 4,000 fish. They were taken from the pond and distributed in streams and ponds in the middle west. The government leases the ponds from Eugene Catte. More than 185,000 fish are raised near here annually.

Heat Damaged Corn

Ryday, Kan., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The intense heat which prevailed in this section recently damaged corn to such an extent farmers believe their yield will be cut materially. It ripened the corn prematurely, in some instances.

The ZRS4 is an innovation in airship design and construction, but there is every reason to believe this type of ship will be a successful one."

Charles Francis Adams, secretary of the navy, who was aboard when the Akron swung away from the Goodyear-Zeppelin Corp. dock here, joined Commander Rosendahl in expresssions of satisfaction.

"The appearance of material and ease of handling are a credit to the workmanship of our people in a new art and to their care and skill in design," he asserted. "The navy is fortunate to have completed so important an adjunct to our national defense."

Octet Hatch 4,000 Fish

Hutchinson, Kan., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—Four pair of fish placed in a pond last winter at the Catte Fish Hatcheries, near here, hatched 4,000 fish. They were taken from the pond and distributed in streams and ponds in the middle west. The government leases the ponds from Eugene Catte. More than 185,000 fish are raised near here annually.

Heat Damaged Corn

Ryday, Kan., Sept. 24.—(U.P.)—The intense heat which prevailed in this section recently damaged corn to such an extent farmers believe their yield will be cut materially. It ripened the corn prematurely, in some instances.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

BEAT WADENA

All Brainerd Will Watch You Win the Season's Opener at the Municipal Grounds

Friday, September 25 at 4:00 o'clock P. M.

A real battle is promised Brainerd football fans when the Blue and White Warriors of Brainerd go down the field against Wadena.

Ever since the scoreless tie of last year the boys of Brainerd have waited for the day when they could once more don the moleskins and establish a definite victory over their rivals from the west.

Go out to the game Friday and prove to the Brainerd Warriors that you are backing them for a most successful 1931 season.
